apply for their 1972 auto tags early and avoid the long waiting lines later on. The branch office is located at 36431 Goddard Rd., Romulus. Although the deadline for passenger car plates is March 31, it is the wise motorist who gets them early.

'71 brings controversy, progress

Big year for new city

By HENRY CANTIN

The City of Romulus, western Wayne County's 33rd and youngest city, continued its "tremendous progress" in residential and commercial development in 1971, a review of city activities disclosed.

Romulus, incorporated as a city in May, 1970, has shown a continuous improvement in nearly all phases of community living.

Under the leadership of its first mayor, Hyle J. Carmichael, and a seven-member city council, the city expanded its growth and development in greater degree in 1971.

Both residential and commercial building have made a sharp rise in 1971. The number of subdivisions in the city has increased over 1970.

The business and professional life of the community has shown increased activity as reflected in record membership in the Romulus Chamber of Commerce.

Metropolitan Airport, headquartered in Romulus, initiated a $200 million plus expansion program in 1971.

As a result of this huge airport expansion program, great improvements already are in operation and underway following study and approval by the Romulus Building Department.

Among some improvement programs benefitting city residents and city life and initiated by city administration were:

—dedication of the city's first Municipal Building and Library in the municipal complex, located at Goddard and S. Wayne roads. The two structures are the first of several buildings slated for the municipal complex.

—official take-over of the Romulus Police Department by the Wayne County Sheriff's Department under a law enforcement contract approved by the city council.

The road patrol division of the sheriff's office now provides 24-hour police protection to Romulus residents and businesses. The contract is the first of its kind in Michigan.

A highlight of the 1971 activities was the controversy involving the city council's distribution of six Class C liquor licenses allotted to the city by the Michigan State Liquor Control Commission.

The liquor license distribution problem still remains with the council as further decisions have to be made on three of the licenses.

The city budget disputes of last April and May were another highlight of the 1971 year. Budget approval was delayed for several weeks.

The adoption by the city of a master zoning ordinance and council's refusal to allow a referendum vote by the citizens led to a Wayne County Circuit Court suit. The court ruled in favor of the city, but an appeal is pending.

Initial steps to ban hunting in the city were taken last year when the council requested the Michigan Department of Natural Resources to conduct a public hearing on the problem and make a report for the council's consideration.

Romulus appoints first recreation head

Frank J. Tolish, 29, of Lansing has been appointed Director of Recreation for the City of Romulus.

The appointment of Tolish, who becomes Romulus' first official recreation chief, was approved by the city council on the recommendation of the Romulus Recreation Commission.

Tolish, who assumed his duties last week, holds a bachelor's degree with a major in parks and recreation and resources and a minor in management social science.

He is married and the father of three children.

FRANK J. TOLISH

Tolish also has attended Muskegon Community College, studying industrial technology. He later transferred to Lansing Community College with continued studies in humanities, social and natural sciences.

He leaves employment with the Oldsmobile Division of General Motors Corp.

Romulus recreation programs have been under the direction of Mrs. Marie DeBuysseher pending the appointment of a director.

Tolish's annual salary will begin in the neighborhood of $8,500.

Union, city await MERC decision

By HENRY CANTIN

Union and Romulus city officials negotiating the terms of an employment contract covering city employees are awaiting the decision of a Michigan Employment Relations Commission (MERC) fact-finder, it was reported Monday.

Local 214 of the State, County and Municipal Workers, affiliated with the Teamsters, and both Romulus City Council and Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael and his aides have been endeavoring to reach a settlement of contract differences in the areas of wages and fringe benefits since July.

Proposals submitted by the union and supported by statistical data have not been accepted by city officials. Counter proposals submitted by the city failed to get the wholehearted approval of union officials.

The contract, if and when approved, will cover from 50 to 60 employees some of which lately have expressed irritation at the seemingly long period of negotiations.

On Dec. 16, the union versus city contract dispute was submitted to Leon Herman, who was appointed finding officer by the agency.

A decision is expected as a result of the fact-finding.

At a Dec. 16 meeting held at the Romulus Municipal Building, both union and city council members presented their sides of the contract dispute.

It was learned the city council is against approving longevity pay while increasing salary scales. It was also disclosed that the complete package offered the union by the city amounts to an increase in excess of 20 per cent.

During the period of negotiations, Local 214 President Joseph Valenti filed an unfair labor charge against the city with the State Employment Relations Commission but later withdrew the charge when negotiations were resumed by the city.

City employees selected Local 214 over its previous union representative, Council 23 of the AFL-CIO, in an election held last April. The employees, reporting they were dissatisfied with Council 23, asked for the National Labor Board election.

The union is seeking a three-year contract. It submitted contract proposals some weeks prior to last September. On Sept. 23 the city presented its counter proposal. It was learned that changes have since been made in both the union and city proposals.

In its offer in September the city offered an across-the-board pay increase of 10 per cent the first year, seven per cent the second year and five per cent the third year for clerical and office employees.

A series of negotiating sessions have since been conducted between the union and the council in efforts to arrive at a settlement.

A tentative agreement on the none-economic issues was reached last July.

The apparent inability to reach agreement on the complete contract led to fact-finding.

Pleas pay off-- Edison to stay

The Belleville branch of the Detroit Edison Co., located at 533 Main St., Belleville, which closed last Thursday (Dec. 30) will reopen and remain open until arrangements are completed to set up a service agency in the Belleville area, it was announced Monday.

Dan Fierz, manager of the Detroit-Wayne marketing areas for the Detroit Edison Co., made the announcement. He reported that pressure on local public officials, partially from Mayor Rowe and Smith of Belleville, prompted Edison officials to make other arrangements to maintain customer service in the Belleville area.

Fierz disclosed that Mayor Smith met with company officials last Thursday and persuaded them to keep the local branch open a little while longer.

Fierz said the firm is presently making arrangements with a local merchant to serve as a service agency for the company. He said the local merchants are under consideration and until matters are finalized, the local branch will remain open.

The local office as well as others branches located in southeastern Michigan were to be closed in an economy move.

Residents of the Belleville-Van Buren Township areas and Romulus and Sumpter communities would have had to go to Wayne for exchange of light bulbs, appliance repairs and related matters if the local branch had remained closed.

Romulus resident stabbed, is Inkster's 14th homicide

The continuing investigation into the stabbing death of a 31-year-old Romulus man early Friday has failed to turn up any substantial leads for Inkster police.

Robert W. Rowe, of 35554 Bibbins, was found dead of multiple stab wounds in an Inkster parking lot near a car wash shortly before 1 a.m. Friday.

Rowe's brother, Jessie, told police the two had been drinking in the Golden Gate Lodge, 3747 Inkster Rd., when four men began beating them for no apparent reason. Jessie Rowe said the two men left the lodge and then split up in an attempt to escape their assailants.

Police said the attackers caught up with Robert Rowe and then beat and stabbed him. He was dead on arrival at Wayne County General Hospital at 1:20 a.m. Rowe had been stabbed five times in the stomach and chest area.

Jessie Rowe, who suffered cuts and bruises, said he had never seen the men who attacked him and his brother before.

The stabbing was the 14th recorded homicide in Inkster in 1971.

Mother seeking dog that bit son in Romulus

The mother of a nine-year-old son who was bitten by a stray dog issued an earnest appeal Monday for assistance in locating the animal.

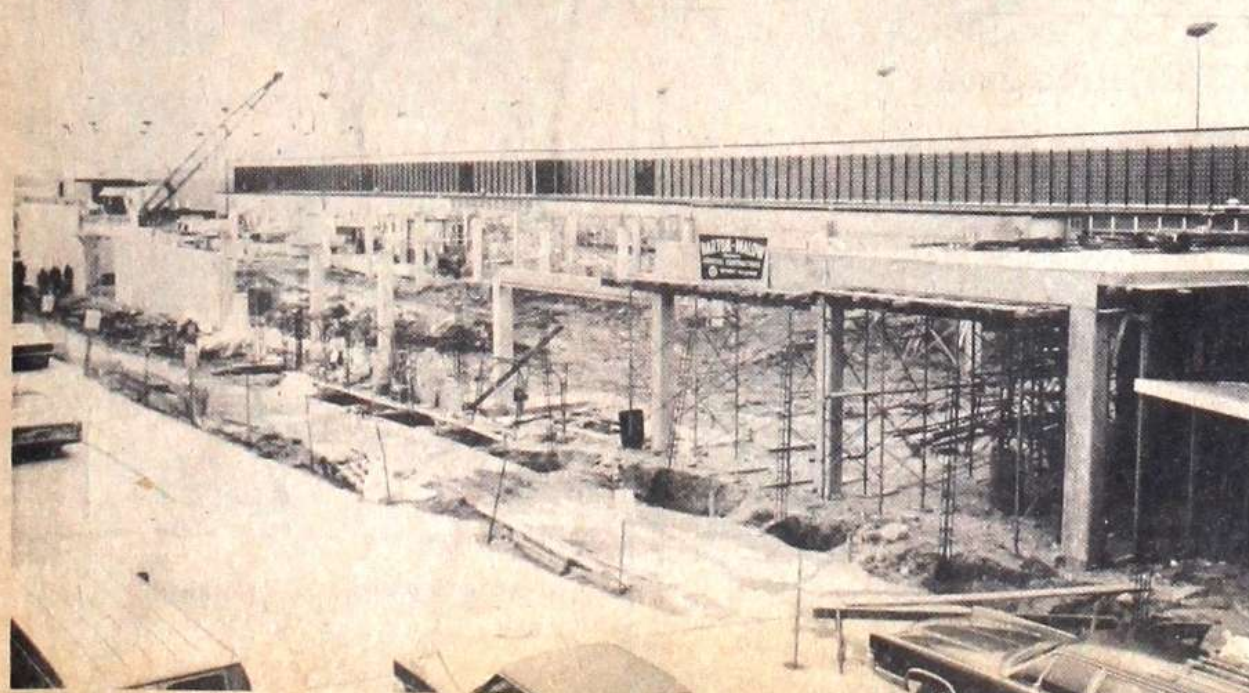

Mrs. Mayme Niewiarowicz of 34030 Henry Ruff Rd., Romulus, reported to the Romulus Roman Monday that her son, Kenneth, was bitten on the left thumb by the dog last Tuesday.

The dog, described as black with a white chest and short hair bit her son on the front lawn of the family home.

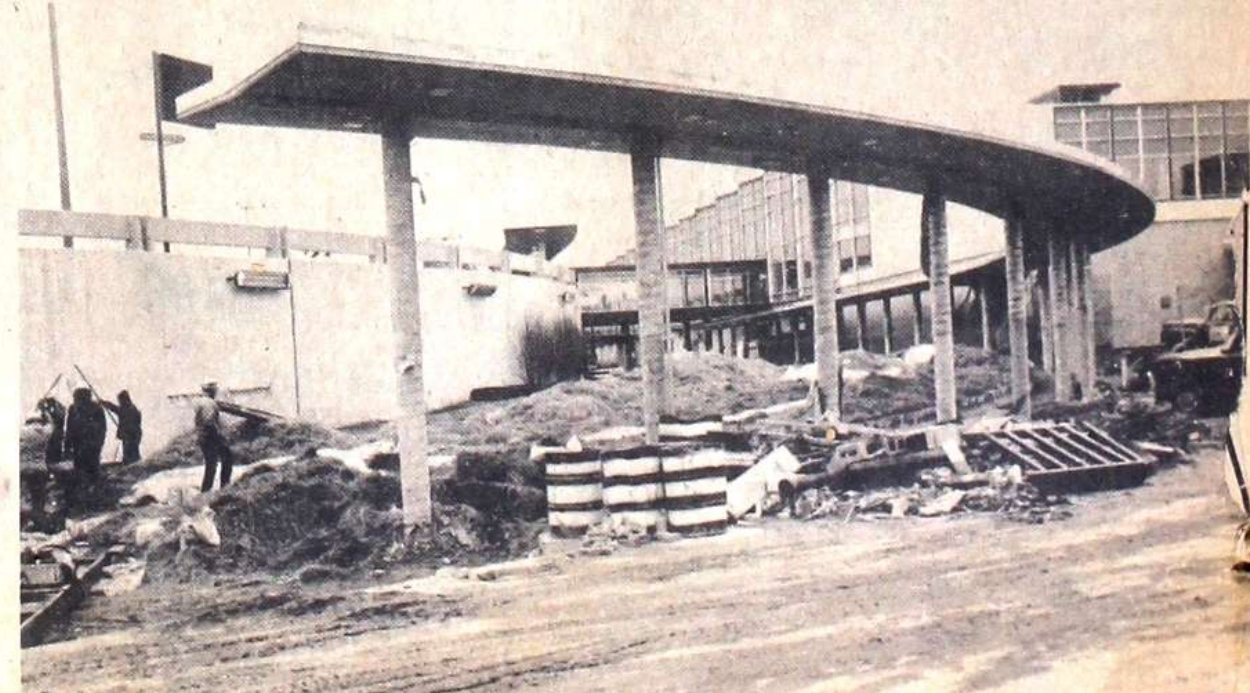

Kenneth was taken to the family physician and treated. Although he appears to be all right the family is anxious to learn if the dog is healthy and whether or not the dog had its rabies shots.

She can be reached at PA 2-0688.

NEW TERMINAL ADDITION — The South Passenger Terminal at the Detroit Metropolitan Airport is being expanded to handle the ever-increasing passenger traffic. Displayed is a progress view of the terminal's new addition now under way. The expansion at the terminal is just another phase of the $200 million expansion and improvement program planned for the airport. Other construction projects started at the airport include increased parking facilities, improved baggage handling facilities and additions to airline offices.

BAGGAGE AREA COMPLEX STARTED — A huge improvement and expansion program is under way at the Detroit Metropolitan Airport in Romulus. One phase of the improvement program is the construction of a new baggage area complex at the North Terminal. When completed the baggage complex will speed up the facilities for the handling of baggage at the airport, including baggage for the big 747 super jets. The circular platform will handle the baggage traffic. Note workmen below laying the foundation for a roadway leading to the baggage area complex.

Sumpter set to hire two new policemen

The Sumpter Township Board of Trustees has approved the hiring of two additional police officers.

With the hiring of the new police officers, the township will now have a 24-hour police car patrol.

Grants totaling approximately $16,000 allotted the township under Provisions of the federal Emergency Employment Act Fund permitted the board to employ the additional policemen.

The township police force now consists of five officers, including Police Chief David W. McNealy.

The candidates were screened by a three-man committee consisting of Chief McNealy and Corporals Robert Dempsey and Clinton Brown of the police department.

The township is assisted in its law enforcement program by the road patrol division of the Wayne County Sheriff's Department.

NEW LIBRARIAN — The new chief librarian at the Fred C. Fisher Library, 167 Fourth St., Belleville, is Mrs. Helen McClatchey of Ann Arbor, mother of six children. Mrs. McClatchey, shown at her new post, replaces Miss Helena McCullough of Belleville, who retired recently after 20 years of service. Mrs. McClatchey is a graduate of Marygrove College and has been an employee of the Wayne County Federated Library System for 15 years.

Civic group questions purchase without bids

A recent decision by the Van Buren Township Board approving the purchase of two fire trucks without bids has been questioned by the Van Buren Civic Association.

The township board was apprised of the association's concern in a communication received and read before the board of its Dec. 28 board meeting.

The two fire trucks have been ordered from the American LaFrance Co. of Elvira, N.Y. at a cost of $109,000.

The township maintains two fire departments. The new trucks "urgently" required to enable the township's fire departments to improve its fire fighting, especially, at apartments and multi-level structure fires.

Trustee Joseph Hogan, township fire commissioner, answered the association's inquiry by reporting there was only one company which could meet the township's specifications for the fire trucks and "it was decided that the taking of bids would be foolish."

The association, in another communication, asked the township board whether or not children residing in outside communities would be allowed to participate in the newly instituted winter recreational program.

Township Supervisor G.

Elton Gollwitzer announced at the board meeting that it was the policy of the administration not to encourage anyone to come from outside of the township.

He added that "when and if our programs are being abused, we would have to figure out steps to police the program and then determine whether the policing would cost more than we could save."

The board instructed the supervisor to answer the communication and stated that residents of non-participating communities will not be allowed to participate.

Romulus orders 19 more structures to be demolished

In line with its adopted program of ridding the City of Romulus of structures declared by the Romulus Building Department to be a nuisance and a hazard to the public health and safety, the Romulus City Council has approved the demolition of 19 more properties.

The owner or owners of the structures have been directed to commence abatement within 10 days from the council's approval (Dec. 28) and to have completed the abatement within 45 days.

If the owner or owners fail to comply, the city's Department of Public Works may demolish the structures or contract to have it done with expense assessed against the property.

During the last year more than 30 structures in the city, mostly residences, have been demolished.

In a related action the council directed City Clerk Leonard J. Folmar to advertise for demolition bids.

The following locations are involved in the demolition proceedings: 6670 Ball Rd., 3335 Beverly Rd., 8664 Dodge St., 29784 Ecorse Rd., 35708 Goddard Rd., 36075 Goddard Rd., 36095 Goddard Rd., 37128

Goddard Rd., a structure on Harrison Road, north of Goddard Road, 12712 Harrison Rd., 16900 Huron River Dr., 6892 Inkster Rd., a structure at Kempa and Ecorse Roads, 7126 Kempa St., 14107 Middlebelt Rd., 30243 Smith Rd., 11095 Wahrman Rd. and 12494 Wahrman Rd.

Sumpter okays feasibility study

Sumpter Township's financial consultants will be requested to make a feasibility and financial study on the possible construction of the township's first sanitary sewer program.

Wade, Trim & Associates of Taylor, township engineers, were authorized by the township board recently to initiate contacts with the financial consultants for the study.

The township's proposed sanitary sewer program totals an estimated $2.7 million. A master plan of the installation of sanitary sewers in the township amounts to an expenditure of between $12 and $14 million.

Currently the township has no sanitary sewers. Septic tanks are being used by the township residents.

In an earlier issue of the Belleville Enterprise, it was reported that Wade, Trim was authorized to begin a study of construction plans.

for Jan. 4. Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael was requested to make a report to the council explaining what action is being taken on a motion made by the city council that all overtime be approved by the mayor and reported to the council.

Pontiac man killed in Romulus crash

A Pontiac man was killed early Saturday when his car struck a tow truck on I-94 Expressway and Wayne Road in Romulus.

FORD MOTOR CO. AIR CONDITIONERS—Owners of 1972 Ford Motor Co. cars (except Thunderbird, Lincoln Continental and Cougar) and light duty trucks who did not purchase factory-installed air conditioning now can go to their Ford or Lincoln-Mercury dealer and have a custom air conditioning system installed. Introduced by Autolite-Ford Parts Division, the new air conditioning systems are superior to prior designs in that bezels are contoured to individual car line instrument panels and present an integrated rather than "hang on" appearance. All units are designed to allow for maximum leg room in the vehicle passenger compartment such as in the 1972 Mercury Montego pictured above.

Taxes account for 13 of 40 work hours

If your typical work week runs five days, a total of 40 hours, it may interest you to know that you worked from Monday morning until about 2 p.m. Tuesday just to pay the direct taxes you owe to federal, state and local government.

According to the Tax Foundation, it takes 13 hours, 5 minutes worth of your weekly pay for taxes. That doesn't include many hidden taxes in the things you buy. By contrast, about 5 hours, 15 minutes of your work week earn the money to buy groceries.

Keeping a roof over your head—this is, all housing costs—adds up to about 5 hours, 5 minutes worth of work time. Total expenses for automobiles, bus fare or any other transportation takes about 3 hours, 10 minutes of the paycheck.

It takes about 2 hours, 5 minutes to earn money for the clothing store. Doctors, dentists and other medical expenses add up to just under 2 hours worth of work each week.

Recreation expenses account for about an hour and 35 minutes of your time on the job.

That leaves about 7 hours and 50 minutes—not quite a full day's work—to pay other expenses. You know—a new chair for the living room, your son's college tuition, your wife's trip to the beauty shop, contributions to the church and a myriad of other expenses necessary to keep a family running.

Of course, there's no such thing as an "average" or "typical" family. But if you're a 40 hour, five-day-a-week worker, these statistics mean something to you.

Particularly meaningful should be the share of your week going for taxes. All total, government at all levels collected a whopping $291 billion dollars in taxes last year, and that's about double the amount collected just 10 years ago.

Safe recovered, but money missing

A safe that was reported stolen from a Romulus restaurant on Nov. 25 was recovered Sunday by Wayne County Sheriff's detectives in Van Buren Township.

Detective Lt. Eugene Derengowski said the safe, containing $625, was taken in the burglary of Flag's Restaurant, 9247 South Middlebelt, in the early morning hours of Nov. 25. Derengowski said the thieves had thrown a brick through the window and lugged the safe out over the broken glass.

The safe was found about five miles from where the theft occurred and had been beaten open. A few dollars and some miscellaneous papers were found inside.

Help center to choose name

An official name for the Romulus Help Center will be selected Sunday, Jan. 10, when volunteers meet at noon to give committee reports and make plans for the center's opening.

Earl Lamb, assistant principal at the high school and chairman for the project, hopes that plumbing problems which have delayed the opening will have been corrected so services can begin during January.

Among the services the center will offer are referral, counseling, information about drugs, job placement, medical referral and some educational projects.

"We are not ourselves able to offer advice about problems, but we do know where the agencies and institutions are that can give professional help in almost all areas of human needs," said Lamb. "The biggest problem faced by most people is not knowing where to turn for help," he added.

"And we still need furniture. We had hoped we would at least have something for people to sit upon before our opening, but so far we haven't had many donations. We will pick up anything people want to give us. We need couches, chairs, tables, lamps, recreational and craft materials," Lamb concluded.

Anyone wishing to donate to the center may contact Miss Sandra Block at 941-0666.

Pentagon Papers top journalism's '10 best'

This is the time of year when the news services issue their lists of the "10 biggest" or most important stories of the past 12 months.

There was a time when these lists were confined to the big spots news stories. That is more difficult to do now and the lists include those important or significant stories that have been more than a single event but a continuing story over a period of days or months, such as the Indo-China War.

Looking back on Editor & Publisher's record of important stories about or affecting the newspaper business during 1971 we have the same difficulty. Most of the developments have been continuing ones.

If we had to pick the Number One newspaper story of the year, it was the publication of the Pentagon Papers, the subsequent court injunctions preventing further publication by the New York Times and the Washington Post, and the Supreme Court decision which frowned on prior restraint of publication in keeping with the intent of the First Amendment.

In the Number Two spot, we would put the four liberal decisions of the Supreme Court which broadened the Times vs. Sullivan defense against libel suits including candidates for public office, as well as private individuals in the public arena, with public officials who have to prove malice in publication of defamatory material.

Other top newspaper developments of the year, not necessarily in order of preference, would be:

Federal Communications attacks on media concentrations and crossownership and its intention to prohibit newspaper ownership of broadcasting facilities in the same market.

The Federal Trade Commission assault on advertising claims, accompanied by those of consumer groups, and the development of the National Advertising Review Board under the aegis of the National Council of Better Business Bureaus.

Introduction of the Newsman's Privilege Act (yet to be considered by Congress) and the Senate hearings on the broad issue of press freedom.

The growth of group newspaper ownership in the U.S. including 883 daily newspapers in 155 groups, or 5.7 papers per group as of July.

The increase in public ownership of the press. As of May 1, the public was able to buy shares in companies owning 6.5 per cent of the dailies and 14.5 per cent of total daily circulation. Those figures are higher now because of group acquisitions since then.

The continued expansion of the offset printing method among U.S. newspapers and the rapid development of electronics including computers and CRT in newsrooms, composing rooms and business offices.

Add to those: The proposed postal rate increase of 142 per cent over the next five years; the tremendous growth of preprinted advertising sections in newspapers; the addition of an "ombudsman" editor by several newspapers and the beginnings of regional press councils; the Wage-Price freeze and the effects of Phase II on newspaper ad and circulation rates; the effect of Woman's Lib on formerly male strongholds such as the National Press Club and the Gridiron Club, Sigma Delta Chi, not to mention individual newspaper offices.

It has been quite a year.

In years gone by...

A look through The Daily Eagle files at news of Western Wayne County one, 15 and 25 years ago:

25 YEARS AGO

Jan. 5, 1957 - The Young People's Fellowship Group of St. John's Episcopal Church were guests at a candle-light service at St. Stephen's Church in Wyandotte.

The group enjoyed dinner there, and made a tour of the building which is being remodeled for the young people to hold their gatherings.

Belleville City Councilmen at their regular meeting voted to purchase and have installed three new fire hydrants along the route of the new water main out Huron River Drive East.

A motion was also approved to ask for bids on a new water pump. These bids will be opened at the next regular meeting on January 20. Permission was also granted for the repair of one of the present pumps.

15 YEARS AGO

Jan. 5, 1957 - Checks totalling $3,000 were received by the Village of Wayne from Charles Attwood for furnishing the new building in Jaycee park.

A $2,500 check from the Unistrut Foundation and a $500 check from the Attwood Foundation comprised the gift.

One of your typical recreation centers is the "Center of the Week." It is the Henry Ruff School, where there seems to be a large and varied interest in recreation, not only with the children of that area, but all, with the adults and school staff. Of the programs started at this center for children, 59 percent of the children have been attending recreation classes regularly.

Dale Jessie of Inkster was among the seven men on Central Michigan College's wrestling team to appear in the first of a series of four TV programs by the physical education department.

A total of 113 candidates have filed petitions and gained positions on the Feb. 18 primary ballot in the four townships of Van Buren, Romulus, Huron and Sumpter. With 58 Democrats and 55 Republicans on the ballot, there will be a total of 18 contests to be decided in the primaries, 11 of them in the Democratic ranks and seven among the Republicans.

ONE YEAR AGO

Jan. 5, 1972 - The proposed urban renewal project in Garden City cannot be judged by looking solely within its boundaries, said Mayor James W. Lowe.

It will affect the entire city and its future, he told members of the Garden City Chamber of Commerce.

Canton's Planning Commission elected new officers at its meeting Grant Campbell assumed the chairmanship as Louis Stein stepped down. Campbell is also treasurer of the Township Board.

The Wayne Police Officers Association (WPOA) has voted to join the Police Officers Association of Michigan.

Membership in the Michigan association is designed to create better respect for law enforcement officers by increasing professionalism and representing members' interests at all levels of decisions affecting law enforcement.

Inkster Postmaster Stephen F. Jakubowski has announced that the public finance windows in the post office will no longer be open on Saturdays, beginning this week.

The postmaster said that, to accommodate the needs of the public, the finance windows will be open until 6 p.m. on Fridays.

Lansing report

What's holding up state capitol?

By DON HOENSHELL

Michigan legislators knew two years ago that the east and west galleries of the House were unsafe for the throngs of school children visiting the capitol. House Speaker William A. Ryan, D-Detroit, ordered them closed Dec. 16 to avoid their collapse. Workmen will install four-inch support pipes anchored to the House floor before the 1972 session begins Jan. 12 as a temporary safeguard but the galleries will remain closed.

Rep. Raymond C. Kehres (D-Monroe) assigned by Ryan to handle construction and personnel, said new steel beams will be installed later at a cost estimated at $30,000.

"We haven't got the right to keep the public out of the chamber, but we can't risk a disaster," Kehres said.

Engineering reports on the structural safety of the 92-year-old building in 1969 were cited as arguments for the need for the planned $100 million new capitol, on which $6.9 million has been spent.

William C. Roegel, engineer with the Legislative Fiscal Agency, disclosed 1969 reports showing that the concrete base of the capitol was crumbling and that the House galleries were unsafe.

"One thing we worry about is the number of school children who come here daily," he said then. "Last year we had 3,000 in one day in an unfamiliar building. We've been lucky."

"Kids jump up and down on the floor of the House balcony and the floor actually goes up and down, it moves. I don't know what's holding it up."

At the time three engineers said there is no steel in the building, only wrought iron tie rods holding together brick bearing arches and supporting floors.

In 1964, the supporting arches under the House chamber became dangerously unsafe. The floor was ripped up and new concrete poured.

Light live loads would be possible by using braces tied back to the outside walls, but the engineers recommended against this method because deflections of up to three inches "would still be expected."

Ryan and Kehres accepted the plan for a new steel girder.

Before 1950, children were allowed to tour the catwalks in the capitol dome. Fire which gutted the Lewis Cass state office building that year prompted officials to close the dome to visitors.

The push for a new capitol has been led by Senators Charles O. Zoller (R-Benton Harbor) and Garland Lane (D-Flint), chairman and vice chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee.

It was under their direction that Roegel called in the experts in 1969 and later disclosed to legislators that the building — including the House gallery — was unsafe.

Resident dissatisfied with Sumpter affairs

To the editor:

I attended the Sumpter board meeting on Dec. 28, the first one in some time. Had a few problems to discuss with the board. The township supervisor was not present — on vacation (again). I have been trying to reach him for five weeks. Never around the township hall when needed.

The meeting started with the secretary reading off the minutes of the last meeting, soft and fast. The people couldn't hear 75 per cent of the previous meeting. Are the board meeting minutes printed in the local paper. If not — why not?

After the board discussed their business (two hours) the chairman adjourned the meeting.

The taxpayers at the meeting wanted to discuss some of their problems. They had no choice, but I stood up and insisted on taking the floor for two problems to be discussed on which I got satisfaction.

Taxpayers should insist the board hold one night open discussion with the people of Sumpter Township to try and resolve our problems.

Romulus mom grateful for help when sick

To the editor:

I don't know exactly how to say "thank you" in a special way, or even how to show it, except I have tears of gratitude and happiness to those who have helped me through my illness.

To Joanne Laraway, who rushed me to Wayne County Hospital at 2 a.m. on December 7 and stayed till I was admitted at 4 a.m. How she managed to carry me to the car I'll never know. God surely was with her.

She took care of matters for me, besides taking care of her own family, being there when I came up from an emergency operation on the ninth. Even though it was all foggy, I do remember seeing her and also my neighbor, Mrs. Agnew Burzuk. They cared.

To the gentleman social worker at the hospital and Mrs. Laraway, who helped get a sewer problem straightened out at my home while I was away.

It took six calls before a gentleman from Cowan Road helped out willingly. Others couldn't be bothered because I was an A.D.C. mother.

Also to the Wayne Church of Christ, who came caroling, laden with food and gifts for my children. I didn't even know these people and they helped make my children's Christmas a blessed one. So "Santa Claus" came Christmas evening with gifts from a special friend, the Laraways, Mr. and Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Meyers.

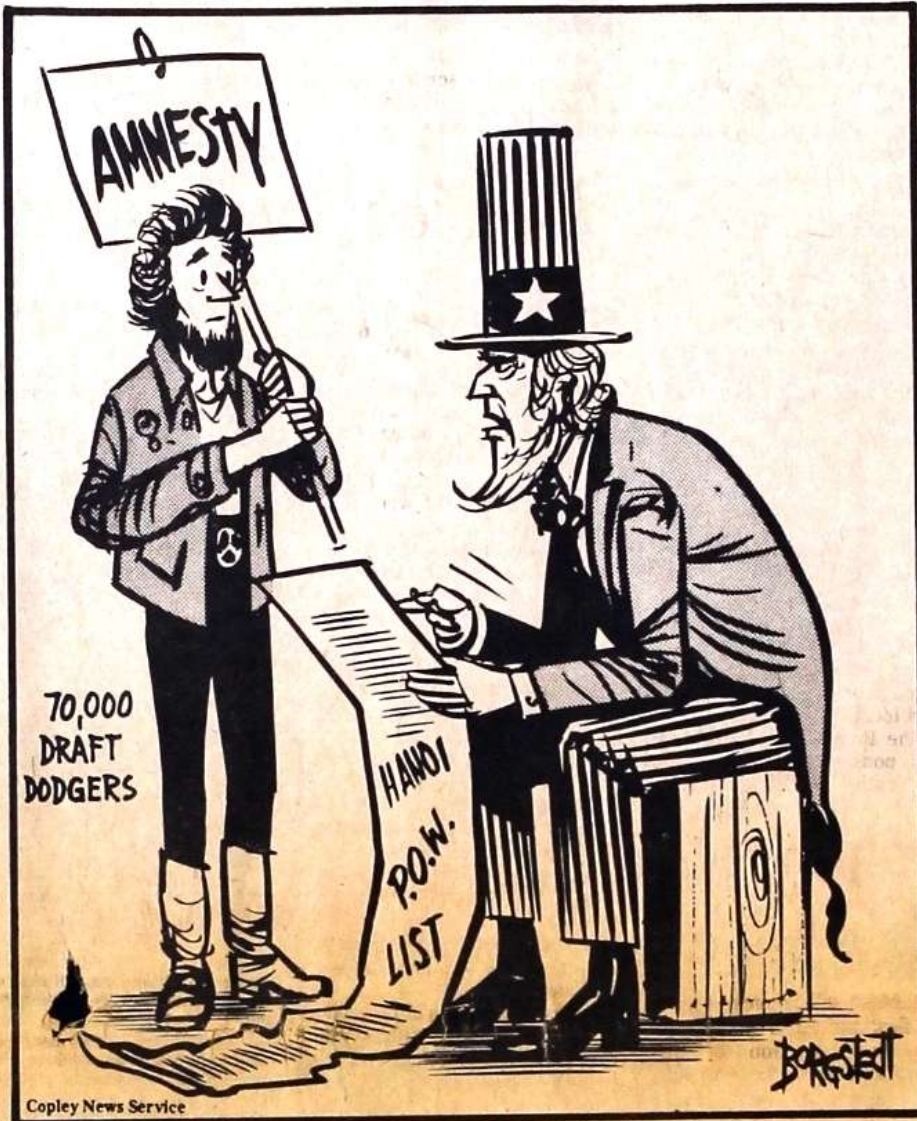

To niece Michelle, who took care of my four children even with her two little ones.

And to my children, who tried to be good while they were afraid for me.

To the Romulus Goodfellows and to the Drs. Vanderbilt, Verburg and Wilkins and Kuhn, who helped me through everything. God bless them all and grant them whatever they wish. I came home for Christmas through all their help.

A special thank you to all is all I can say. It's amazing just how you know who your friends are.

Environmental quality bills passed by House

Two important environmental quality bills received House approval before the legislature adjourned until its 1972 session, which starts Jan. 12.

One of them was a Senate bill which sets statewide controls over the phosphate content of detergents. The bill is presently awaiting the governor's signature.

The bill would set an 8.7 per cent limit on the amount of phosphates in laundry detergents and other cleaning compounds sold in Michigan, effective next July 1.

In addition, it enables the State Water Resources Commission to ban what it considers to be dangerous phosphate detergents. If the commission's decision is disputed, the burden of proof would be on the manufacturer.

The July 1 deadline would give merchants time to sell out stocks of detergent that exceed the new state limits.

By EDUARDE. MAHALAK
State Representative
38th District

The bill is considered a model for other Great Lakes states that have been concerned about phosphate-caused pollution. The phosphates, which are washed down drains and into rivers and lakes, are blamed for "killing" the waters by increasing the growth of oxygen-consuming algae in much the same way that phosphate fertilizers stimulates the growth of farm crops.

Pending final approval in the legislature is another bill which would place restrictions on billboards. The bill originated in the Senate and was approved by the House in the final days of the session, but with amendments that must be accepted by the Senate before the measure can be presented to the governor.

Unless the bill is passed, the state stands to lose some $16 million in federal highway funds for failure to meet requirements of the Federal Highway Beautification Act. Under the House version, billboard owners would need an annual permit from the Department of State Highways, except for those billboards on business premises. They must be no larger than 1,200 square feet in counties of less than 425,000 population and no more than 6,500 square feet in other counties. They could not be closer together than 500 feet on the roadside of the highway along freeways, 300 feet along primary highways and 100 within municipalities.

At a place of business, a sign must be placed on the opposite side of the road if the State Highway Department certifies that it is geographically impossible to place it on the premises.

Local units of government still would be able to enact their own billboard ordinances, but they would have to meet the minimum state standards.

Just before it adjourned for the year, the Senate adopted a House resolution to place before voters a constitutional amendment to permit a state lottery. However, because of some Senate changes in the House wording, the resolution had to be sent back for concurrence. Action on the resolution will probably take place in the House shortly after it returns for the 1972 session.

Once approved, the proposition would be placed on the ballot in the Aug. 8 primary election. It would change the state constitution to allow a state lottery, with part of the revenue going to the state and local units of government.

New Jersey, New York and New Hampshire already have state lotteries. It has been estimated that a lottery in Michigan would raise between $11 million and $25 million a year to be divided between state and local governments.

One bill passed in the House and sent to the Senate would establish an official state pledge of allegiance. It reads: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of Michigan and to the state for which it stands, two beautiful peninsulas united by a bridge of steel, where equal opportunity and justice to all is real."

By DAVE FERDON
Casting is currently under way for the winter production of the Romulus City Players. A.A. Milne's "Winnie-The-Pooh."

Practices are scheduled every Monday, Wednesday and Thursday night from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Romulus High School Auditorium at 9650 S. Wayne Road near the I-94 Expressway.

Romulus residents are invited to join the city's first community theatre group.

The City Players require a variety of talents for their winter production, the most dominating needs being in the areas of costuming and makeup design for the characters.

Yards of cloth will be stitched, basted and pinned, creating the full body costumes that are needed.

All animal characters will require individual makeup design creating the proper animal face and mood.

The set and lighting are always important, and usually the product of creative touches while being constructed. Developing the physical setting for the fantasy will be a challenge to the crews.

Production of "Winnie-The-Pooh" insures an even greater challenge to the actors. That challenge is entertaining the anticipated audience of elementary school children from Romulus and Belleville.

While some noted television programs maintain the attention of this age group for surprisingly long periods of time, a live performance does not have the advantages of television and must rely on every ounce of the actors' strength.

Milne, in creating the story, and Kristin Sergel, in dramatizing "Winnie-The-Pooh," explore the use of pantomime and emotions such as fear, excitement, awe, jealousy and sympathy in the stage version of the story.

Comical situations confront Pooh because "Bears Like Honey," and Piglet because he needs a bath, and Eeyore because he's a donkey. All this happens while Christopher Robin looks on and listens.

Productions are scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 12 and 13 at 3 p.m. in the afternoon in hopes of entertaining a majority of area children.

Further notice will be given through elementary schools and local PTA groups.

The Romulus City Players are sponsored by the Romulus Recreation Department.

NEW OFFICERS — The Huron Valley Conservation Association has elected officers for 1972. The new official slate includes (from left) Jack English of Belleville, membership secretary; Ron McLain of Northville, secretary; Dale Uranis of Taylor, president; Blake Fry of Belleville, vice president; and Ernie Hamacher of Belleville, treasurer.

Junior achievement semi-finals scheduled

The search for Mr. and Miss Executive of Junior Achievement of Southeastern Michigan accelerates as semi-finals are scheduled in five regional contests the weekend of Jan. 7-10.

In each of these contests the winners of eliminations previously held at the centers will compete for one of five finalist positions for Mr. Executive, and a similar position for Miss Executive. Finals will be held at the Sheraton Cadillac Hotel on Jan. 28, during J.A. Week (Jan. 23-29).

Ypsilanti Center will host Region 4 semi-finals at Cleary College at 9 a.m. on Jan. 8. Contestants will be from Ann Arbor, Chelsea, Fowlerville, Howell and Plymouth centers. Names of judges will be available at a later date.

Region 5 contest will be held at Holiday Inn on Michigan Avenue in Dearborn on Jan. 8 from 1 to 4 p.m. Entries will be from Dearborn, Monroe, Redford, Telegraph and Wayne centers.

Judges are T. Dean Plato, sales manager of the Southfield office of National Steel Corp.; Robert Smith, Jr., editor and publisher of the Dearborn Press; John Kaminski, executive vice president of Welcor Corp., and R.E. Kinnerman, personnel director, Detroit Universal Division, Chrysler Corp.

Contestants will be judged on the basis of poise, personality, appearance and business knowledge. The winning young man and young woman will serve as the public representative of Junior Achievement of Southeastern Michigan during 1972.

This is the highest single honor that a boy or girl in J.A. can earn.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

BY HAROLD REDISKE, DIRECTOR

How many New Year resolutions did you hear people make? How many, if any, resolutions concerned individual action for the good of society as a whole instead of improvement or gain for self?

For example - how many people promised to change their goals? To lessen an interest in quantity of personal possessions and strengthen quality of character in dealings with other people? To replace dislikes and hatreds with acts and evidence of love for their fellow man? To strive for agreement and union as a replacement for stubbornness or contrariness? To abstain from retaliation for alleged or actual wrongs by others? To tell the truth instead of seeking excuses for errors with the use of false or idle words? To decrease doubts, despair and fear - and increase hope and faith? To seek strength and calmness through daily prayer instead of occasional pleadings to Heaven when earthly props fail?

These are the sort of resolutions that only you can make for yourself, no one else can make them for you. And certainly no one else can keep them for you. Are they worth while? Only you can answer that. May we mention again that your comment by letter, phone or person is always welcome - and appreciated - be it pro or con...

Robbery nets $4,000

The A&P Supermarket, located at 201 Charles St., Belleville, was robbed of $4,000 Thursday, Belleville police reported.

According to police reports, a young white male walked up to the cashier's office around 7:00 p.m. and ordered the woman clerk to open the door and let him in.

When she refused the young man told her he had a gun in his pocket and ordered her to put all the money in a brown paper bag, police said.

He as described to be between the ages of 19 and 21 years old. He had short hair, was clean shaven and was wearing a field jacket.

Police reported that the thief made off with $4,000.

Tryouts are scheduled

Before the paint had a chance to dry on Dearborn Civic Theatre's set for the drama "Inherit the Wind," plans were moving right along for the next production, "Most Happy Fella."

Auditions for "Most Happy

Fella" will be held Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the Osborn Recreation Center, located at Lois and Osborn in Dearborn.

Producer Joseph Lempicki hopes to see a large turnout for the open auditions, as many dancers, singers and actors of all ages are needed for the season's final production.

Bill Premin will direct "Most Happy Fella," a musical about the Italian community in Napa Valley, Calif. Premin's excellent portrayal of Tevye in "Fiddler on the Roof" was a highlight of DCT's current season.

The duties of musical director will be ably handled by Charles S. Heard. Among his many musical accomplishments, Heard is a director of the Rackham Symphony Choir and a vocal director for Wayne-Westland Community Schools.

Bonnie McFarland will act as choreographer for this show. She choreographed DCT's "Fiddler."

Performance dates for "Most Happy Fella" are April 7, 8, 9, 14, 15 and 16 at Edsel Ford High School in Dearborn.

Although plans are already in progress for the final show, DCT has yet to present the drama "Inherit the Wind." The play is about the trial of a young teacher charged with teaching Darwin's Theory of Evolution. The plot is loosely based on the famous Scopes "Monkey" Trial which brought together William Jennings Bryan and lawyer Clarence Darrow.

Performance dates are Feb. 11, 12, 18, 19 and 20 at Edison Junior High in Dearborn. Tickets will be available beginning Jan. 14 at a cost of $2 each. For further information regarding either auditions or tickets, call the Dearborn Recreation Department, LU 4-1200.

ROMEO AND JULIET — Mimi Carr as Juliet's nurse helps Romeo, played by Carlos Carrasco, arrange the secret marriage of the world's most famous lovers in the Hilberry Theatre's new production of Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet."

At Hilberry Theatre

'Romeo and Juliet' will open Thursday

"Romeo and Juliet," Shakespeare's tragedy of young love in a warring world, officially opens at the Hilberry Theatre Thursday, at 8:30. The play will be repeated Friday and Saturday at 8:30, and will continue in the evening repertory through March 18. It is also part of the current season's school matinee repertory.

The Hilberry's new production of the play, which was one of the four opening productions for the theatre in 1964, continues its stage history of constant performance since Shakespeare's own time. A success from the beginning, it became the first of the bard's plays to achieve world-wide popularity and has made Romeo and Juliet the world's most famous lovers.

The role of Romeo is played by Carlos Carrasco, a new Hilberry actor from Panama City, Panama. His Juliet is Dianne Hill, a returning actress from Aberdeen, South Dakota. She also has been this season's Emily in "Our Town," Ophelia in "Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead," and Rose Trelawny in "Trelawny of the Wells."

Other principals include Hilberry veterans Lee Smith as Mercutio and Howard Jensen as Friar Laurence, and newcomer Mimi Carr as the Nurse.

The production is directed by Robert T. Hazzard, with scenery by Joseph Falzetta, costumes by Vic Leverett and Helen Markovitch and lighting by Gary M. Witt. The fights were staged by James Corrigan of the acting company.

"Romeo and Juliet" joins "Trelawny of the Wells" in the repertory currently playing, with Kopit's "Indians" being added in late January. Other up-coming productions, Osborne's "Luther" and Shaw's "Misalliance," will open in March and April respectively. A production of "A Midsummer Night's Dream" will join the school matinee repertory in February.

Ticket and schedule information is available from the Wayne State University Theatre Box Office, Cass and Hancock, telephone 577-2972.

'Glass Menagerie' to open at Meadow Brook Theatre

Tennessee Williams' first and greatest hit, "The Glass Menagerie," will be Meadow Brook Theatre's fourth production of the 1971-1972 season.

The bittersweet masterpiece that introduced the world to America's most exciting new dramatist, in its Broadway premiere in 1945, will open at Meadow Brook Thursday.

At once, wildly poetic and painfully realistic, "The Glass Menagerie" is the timeless portrait of the Wingfield family, the sensitive Tom and Laura and their proud, domineering mother, Amanda.

One of the truly great roles in modern drama, Amanda was first brought to life in the unforgettable performance of Laurette Taylor.

Meadow Brook favorite Elisabeth Orion will re-create the role for this production. Co-starring as Laura, Amanda's crippled, poetic daughter will be Diane Bugas.

Meadow Brook newcomer, David Little, will play the sardonic, yet loving brother, Tom. Mr. Little comes to Meadow Brook from the Lincoln Center Repertory Company in New York where he was seen last season in "Antigone" and "An Enemy of the People."

Also featured as the lone intruder into the Wingfield world, The Gentleman Caller, will be David Himes.

"The Glass Menagerie" runs at Meadow Brook on the campus of Oakland University Thursday through Jan. 30.

Israeli director to speak

Yaacov Orland, artistic director of the Haifa Israel Theatre, will discuss the peculiarities of the Israeli Theatre in "From Right to Left," the next Front Row Center program of Center Theatre, at 8:30 p.m., Wednesday, January 12, at the Jewish Community Center, 18100 Meyers Road, Detroit.

Orland, a noted Israeli poet, playwright and lyricist is serving as scholar in resident at the Center in January. He is visiting the United States to direct the English version of his play "The Man Behind The Legend," the story of the life of Zionist founder Theodor Herzl.

Coffee and refreshments with the speaker will follow the program. Admission is 50 cents at the door.

County orders correction

Board says family must comply with order

Sumpter Township Board members cited reasons Monday for their recent action ordering a Sumpter family to comply with township ordinances at its trailer home.

Private water and sewage disposal facilities at the trailer home, located at 18970 Martinsville Rd., are inadequate based on an investigation made by the Wayne County Board of Health, board members charged.

It was on the orders of the Wayne County Health Department that the township board ordered the family to correct this condition, the board said.

The family reported it is financially unable to comply with township ordinances because all its available money is being spent on doctor bills.

When the family's plight became known, some area residents began a campaign to assist it. Several donations of money and food already have been made.

Mrs. Clara Mae Weishuhn of 18970 Martinsville Rd.

reported that her husband, Leslie, is unable to work because of a nervous condition and stomach trouble. The family's two children are crippled. One baby is scheduled to have hip surgery tomorrow (Thursday) and the other child, a daughter, has to have special stockings and shoes for bad feet.

Trustees James O. Brown and Richard Krajewski and other board members reported the board had tabled taking any official action on the problem on three separate occasions.

The board requested the Wayne County Health Department to make an investigation since the board was considering permission to the family to stay on the basis of hardship conditions pending further action.

The Wayne County Health Department reported in part, "in view of the very minimal water supply and sewage disposal system existing at this premise, it is this department's recommendation that your township board deny request for use of the trailer at this location."

At the Nov. 23 board meeting, trustees, on the basis of the health department's report, asked the chief ordinance enforcement officer (Supervisor Elmer Parraghi) to inform the family that it is not in compliance with township ordinances and to instruct the trailer to occupants correct conditions to meet both local ordinances and health department regulations.

KICK THE HABIT - The Huron Health Committee recently sponsored a Smoking Withdrawal Clinic at Huron High School. Several health organizations cooperated in the clinic. A "Kick the Habit" poster used by the health organizations in their anti-smoking campaign is being viewed by committee members, who are (from left) David Batchelor, Mrs. Mary McKinney, Mrs. Margaret Fakhoury and Mrs. Susan Rhodes, chairman.

Aliens must give address

Thomas M. Pederson, district director of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, announced Monday that aliens in the United States will be required to report their addresses to the attorney general within the near future.

All aliens, with few exceptions, who are in the United States on Jan. 1 each year must report their addresses by the end of that month. Only the following classes of aliens are excused from this requirement:

- (1) accredited diplomats, and (2) persons accredited to certain international organizations.

Forms with which to make the report can be obtained from any Post Office or Immigration and Naturalization Service Office during the month of January.

Only official stamps can be used on mail

"Stamps" to be produced and issued by a so-called "independent postal system" may not be used on matter being deposited in the U.S. mails, the U.S. Postal Service cautioned today.

Referring to reports that "ipsa stamps" with denominations of 1 to 50 cents are being used on mail, the U.S. Postal Service said that such stamps are subject to return to mailers and postage due charges.

Mailers should make certain that the only stamps to be affixed to their letters and packages are the official U.S. postage stamps, if they want to insure prompt delivery.

This is true even if the mail should carry additional legal U.S. postage stamps, the Postal Service cautioned.

Deadline Jan. 17 to pay '71 taxes

The deadline for final payment of 1971 estimated federal income tax is Monday, Jan. 17, 1972, Thomas A. Cardoza, District Director of Internal Revenue for Michigan, reported Monday.

Some persons may have to make an amended estimate by Jan. 17 if their income changed substantially during the last quarter of 1971. Space to compute an amended estimate is provided on the worksheet contained in the estimated tax package received by taxpayers of 1971.

Knights of Columbus establish scholarships

The Knights of Columbus have established scholarships for children of servicemen, police officers and fire fighters over the years.

According to Walt Zacharias, grand knight of the Notre Dame Council of the K of C in Wayne, "The Supreme Council office of the Knights of Columbus in New Haven, Conn., does maintain a million dollar educational trust fund by Jan. 17 if they just met the filing requirements during the fourth quarter, according to Cardoza.

Payment of the last installment or the filing of an original or amended declaration otherwise due Jan. 17 is not required if the taxpayer files his 1971 income tax return and pays all of the tax due by Monday, Jan. 31, 1972.

Due dates are different for farmers and commercial fishermen, Cardoza said. Publication 505, "Tax Withholding and Declaration of Estimated Tax," furnishes additional information

ORDINANCE NO. 12-28-71
ANTI-BLIGHT ORDINANCE

WAYNE COUNTY, MICHIGAN

An Ordinance to prevent, reduce or eliminate blight, blighting factors or causes of blight within Van Buren Township, Wayne County, Michigan; to provide for the enforcement hereof; and to provide penalties for the violation hereof.

THE TOWNSHIP OF VAN BUREN ORDAINS:

Consistent with the letter and spirit of Act. No. 344 of the Public Acts of 1945, as amended, it is the purpose of the ordinance to prevent, reduce or eliminate blight or potential blight in Van Buren Township by the prevention or elimination of certain environmental causes of blight or blighting factors which exist or which may in the future exist in said Township.

SECTION 2. CAUSE OF BLIGHT OR BLIGHTING FACTORS.

It is hereby determined that the following uses, structures and activities are causes of blight or blighting factors which, if allowed to exist, will tend to result in blighted and undesirable neighborhoods. On and after the effective date of this ordinance no person, firm or corporation of any kind shall maintain or permit to be maintained any of the causes of blight or blighting factors upon any property in Van Buren Township owned, leased, rented, or occupied by such person, firm or corporation.

A. In any area zoned for residential purposes, the storage upon any property of junk automobiles, except in a completely enclosed building. For the purpose of this ordinance the term "junk automobiles" shall include any motor vehicle which is not licensed for use or the highways of the State of Michigan for a period in excess of sixty days and shall also include whether licensed or not, any motor vehicle which is inoperative for any reason for a period in excess of 60 days.

B. In any area zoned for residential purposes, the storage upon any property of building materials unless there is in force a valid building permit issued by the Township for construction upon said property and said materials are intended for use in connection with such construction. Building materials shall include but shall not be limited to lumber, bricks, concrete or cinder blocks, plumbing materials, electrical wiring or equipment, heating ducts or equipment, shingles, mortar, concrete or cement, nails, screws, or any other materials used in constructing any structure.

The causes of blight or blighting factors set forth above as applicable to areas zoned for residential purposes are hereby determined to be causes of blight or blighting factors and subject to the prohibitions of this Ordinance if located in areas zoned for other than residential purposes, unless such uses of property are incidental to and necessary for the carrying out of any business or occupation lawfully being carried on upon the property in question.

C. In any area zoned for residential purposes, the storage or accumulation of junk, trash, rubbish or refuse or any kind, except domestic refuse stored in such a manner as not to create a nuisance for a period not to exceed thirty days. The term "junk" shall include parts of machinery or motor vehicles, unused stoves or other appliances stored in the open, remnants of wood, metal or any other material or other cast-off material or any kind whether or not the same could be put to any reasonable use.

D. In any area the existence of any structure or part of structure which because of fire, wind or other natural disaster, or physical deterioration is no longer habitable, as a dwelling, nor useful for any other purpose for which it may have been intended.

E. In any area zoned for residential purposes, the existence of any vacant dwelling, garage, or other out-buildings are kept securely locked, windows kept glazed, or neatly boarded up and otherwise protected to prevent entrance thereto by vandals.

F. In any area the existence of any partially completed structure unless such structure is in the course of construction in accordance with a valid and subsiding building permit issued by the Township and unless such construction is completed within a reasonable time.

SECTION 3. ENFORCEMENT AND PENALTIES.

A. This Ordinance shall be enforced by such persons who shall be so designated by the Township Board.

B. The owner, if possible, and the occupant of any property upon which any of the causes of blight or blighting factors set forth in Section 2 hereof is found to exist shall be notified in writing to remove or eliminate such causes of blight or blighting factors from such property within ten days after service of the notice upon him. Such notice may be served personally or by registered mail, return receipt requested. Additional time may be granted by the enforcement officer where bonafide efforts to remove or eliminate such causes of blight or blighting factors are in progress.

D. Violation of this ordinance shall be a misdemeanor which shall be punishable upon conviction thereof by a fine not to exceed $500.00 or by imprisonment not exceeding 90 days or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

SECTION 4. EFFECTIVE DATE.

This Ordinance will become effective 30 days after first publication of the ordinance.

This Ordinance is hereby declared to have been adopted by the Township of Van Buren, County of Wayne, State of Michigan, at a regular meeting thereof duly called and held on the 28 day of December, A.D. 1971, and ordered to be published in the manner prescribed by law.

Redistricting delayed

Census still not done

WASHINGTON It's been nearly two years since the government counted you, your neighbor and the guy down the street. But chances are your legislature still doesn't know how many live on your block.

The census of April 1, 1970, was a one-day snapshot of the country. The picture still is being developed, and waiting for it are state and local governments under the gun to reapportion.

The material that's sought is called "block data,"—literally a count of people who live on a given city block, arranged with neat little quick-glance maps. The Census Bureau is tabulating 1,500,000 such blocks, a staggering task even with computers.

as never before," said a key official at the Census Bureau. "When people did their redistricting after the 1960 census, there was no rush because there were no legal mandates."

Then came the Supreme Court's one-man, one-vote rulings of the 60s and "anybody is able to take a state legislature into federal court," he said. "People want to redistrict as fast as possible. A lot more people are knocking at our door and they want data earlier than the Census Bureau can give it to them."

On the day of the census, the bureau set 180,000 people to counting noses. Preliminary data was released in the fall of 1970. By February this year, each state had the figures for its part of the 250,000

"enumeration districts" the bureau tabulates.

"The Master Enumeration District list was available," the census official said. "Some states picked it up, some didn't. But a lot of older politicians, particularly the ones that worked on redistricting in the 60s, were used to using block data. And some states could not use the MED list because it averages 800 people per district."

"An awful lot of these block reports are down at the GPO," said the census bureau man. "We are getting a lot of letters from people that know the data is out and can't get it."

The bureau began distributing the block data last September and expects to have it all out by the end of January, depending on how fast the government printing office works.

Board approves new custodial plan

A Head Custodian Program for the Van Buren Public School District was approved by the Van Buren Board of Education recently.

Under the program, each school building will have a head custodian directly responsible for the school building which he is assigned to, School Superintendent Dale E. Kaulitz reported.

has eight elementary school buildings, two junior high school buildings and one senior high school.

The present custodial staff of the school district will be notified of these positions and will be given an opportunity to apply. Applications received from the present custodial personnel as well as others will be reviewed and selections made.

Investment class begins

The adult education program at Huron Senior High School, New Boston, is offering a Stock Market and Investment Class, Roger Benner, community-school director, announced Monday.

The six-week course will be from 7 to 8 p.m. beginning Thursday, Jan. 27. The fee is $6. For further information call Benner at 782-3357.

College classes to begin

Registration for Wayne County Community College classes to be held at Romulus High School is continuing through Friday, Jan. 7.

Hours for the registration are 7-10 p.m. each evening and registrants are asked to report to the high school cafeteria.

A variety of courses is being offered at the Romulus Center ranging in interests from law enforcement classes to shorthand.

Wayne County Community College is unique in that it does not require a high school diploma for an entrance standard and its tuition rates are among the lowest in the entire state.

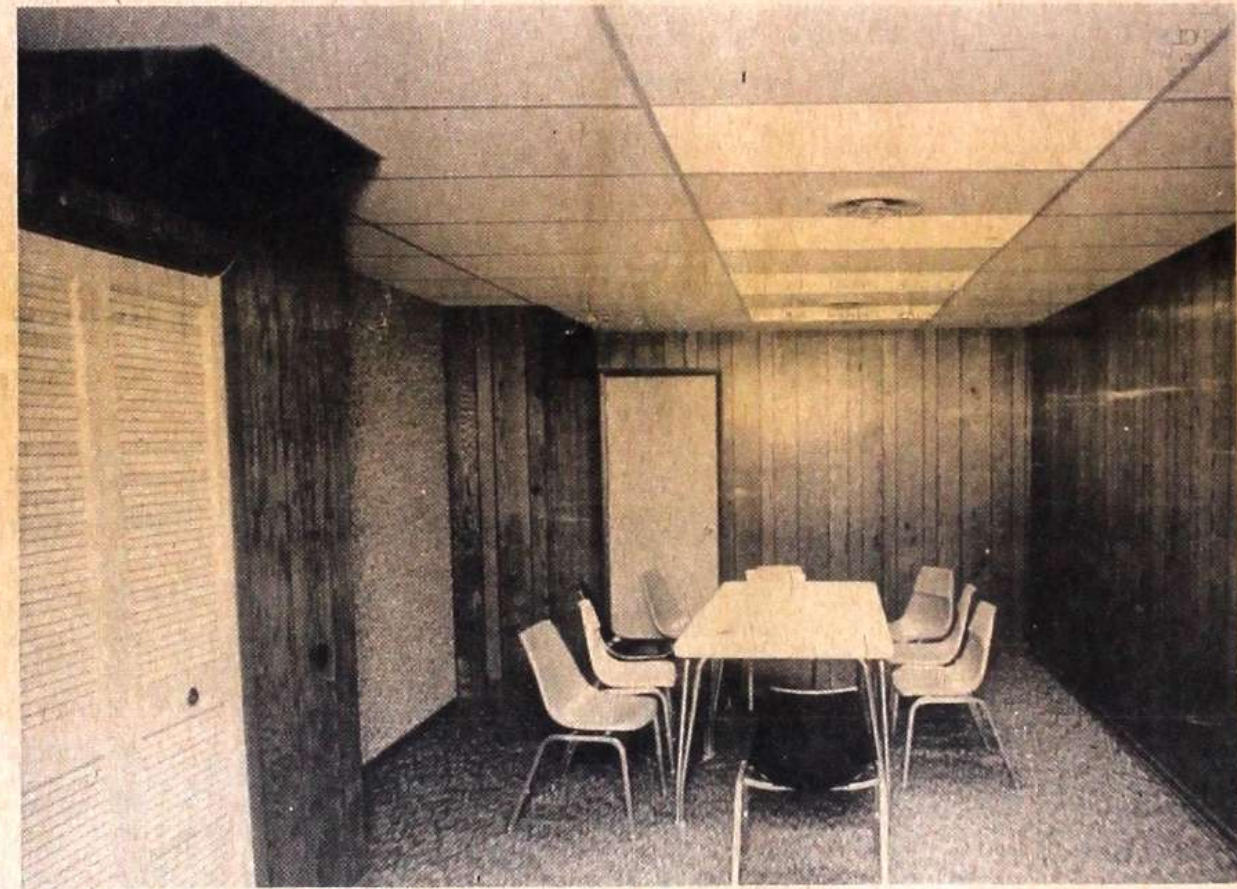

Further details can be obtained by contacting William Smith, Romulus community school director, at 941-1600.

Romulus seniors celebrate holiday

Romulus Senior Citizens Club celebrated Christmas at the Community Center, located in the Romulus Municipal Building, on Dec. 14.

The Romulus Jaycees sponsored a bus tour to Detroit, including the Christmas Festival at Cobo Hall. The bus left the municipal building at 5:30 p.m. Dec. 19 and returned at 9 p.m. The tour passengers included 16 patients from Woody's RestHome in Romulus.

The club announced the following new members: Hazel Miller, Rita Soave, Phillip Renke and Celia Renke.

Cory PTA makes plans for 1972

Cory Elementary School PTA celebrated the holidays with purchases, gifts and treats for the children. Then the group began making plans for the new year's activities, reported Mrs. Gloria Chandler, president.

Twenty six foot artificial Christmas trees were brought by the PTA group.

"One for every room. We even saw to it that our sixth graders at Special Services had a tree," said Mrs. Chandler. Each child was also given a gift from the PTA and an ice cream treat went to all 600 children on the last hot lunch day.

The new year's activities will begin on Monday, Jan. 10, when Robert L. McConeghy, superintendent of schools, will be speaker at a meeting beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the school multi-purpose room. McConeghy's topic will be the importance of approving the renewal of 10 mills of operating millage. The referendum is scheduled for spring.

Other plans include a spring music review of Rogers and Hammerstein music, directed by Mrs. Lois Munkachy, vocal music instructor.

Skeleton identified as Carleton woman

A skeleton believed to be the bones of a 63-year-old Carleton woman missing since last May was being checked today by Monroe County sheriff's deputies.

The remains, discovered Friday by two rabbit hunters in Indian Gully near Carleton, were believed to be those of Betty Koepfner, who was reported missing May 25.

Police said she apparently had suffered from exposure, lost consciousness and died on the spot.

The woman, a former resident of Taylor, had resided in Carleton for about 10 months when she disappeared. She had been taking care of an invalid. The skeleton was found about one-half mile from the house in which she lived with her patient.

Partial identification was provided by eyeglasses and a gold chain, deputies said.

Sumpter boards plan meet

A joint session of the Van Buren Planning Commission, Van Buren Township Board and the Van Buren Board of Education will be held at 8 p.m. Jan. 19.

Invitations to the joint meeting were issued by the planning commission.

It is expected that mutual problems and other matters bearing on the growth and future developments in Van Buren Township will be on the agenda.

It also is expected that the discussions will be on ways the three groups can cooperate in the planning of future residential growth.

COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP FUND GETS DONATION — Wayne County Road Commissioner Freddie G. Burton (Center) donates an $300 check to Wayne County Community College's Scholarship and Loan Fund. Accepting the gift are John Bowker, director of student Financial Aid, and Margaret Horn, secretary to the school's Board of Trustees. The money was raised at a Christmas party honoring Burton, who was completing his first year on the three-member road commission. Burton, an attorney, is a former member of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners.

Assessment districts okayed in Van Buren

Two special assessment rolls for the construction of new sewer lines in Van Buren Township were approved by the township board.

One special assessment district begins on Van Born Road in the vicinity of Morton-Taylor Road and extends west to Belleville Road north to Michigan Avenue and west to Denton Road, where it divides into two sections and continues south on Denton Road and west on Michigan Avenue to Rawsonville Road.

The other special assessment district covers a sewer project of more than 500 feet on Alden Drive.

New Girl Scout troop has fly-up ceremony

A Fly-Up Ceremony was held recently by Cory Elementary Girl Scout Troop 421. This is a newly organized troop which held its first meeting Nov. 15 under the leadership of Mrs. Gail Modrzynski.

The "Fly-Up" girls were: Mary Heveranek, Carol Cole, Becky Modrzynski, Michele Nickel and Lisa Grillo.

The officers are: Becky Modrzynski, president; Edna Badia, vice president; Kathy Kalsayan, secretary; Michele Nickel, treasurer and Debra Kalsayan, scribe.

The troop worked on Christmas gifts as one of its projects. It held a Christmas party on Dec. 17 at the home of the assistant leader, Mrs. Nickel. The group also went caroling.

Freestyle relay saves streak

Belleville unbeaten

It went right down to the last relay when Belleville and Kent State High School met in their final dual meet of 1971 last week.

And Belleville, thanks to its freestyle team, managed to pull it out by a close 44-46 margin to preserve its winning streak. The victory was the fifth in a row for Coach Sam Vicchy's Tigers, who are undefeated thus far. "It was team effort that did it," said Vicchy, who has one more non-conference exam to pass, on Jan. 11 against Ypsilanti, before launching the expanded Suburban Six now Eight swim campaign.

"We knew they had a lot of AAU swimmers at Kent, but our depth paid off."

Belleville trailed their host right down to the 400-yard freestyle relay — the final event — and the Tiger foursome of Terry Mills, Matt Byrnes, Dean Ackron and Jeff Fry combined their efforts to win in 3:35.3, beating their counterparts who had a 3:39.0. Kent the lead away from the Tiger quartet.

Belleville mustered only three other first places in the meet.

All-Area diver Barry Susterka continues to shatter records in and out of the state as he put together 273.35 to post a school record. (Since the university swims and dives at the high school, all pool records belong to the collegiates.)

Then, Dean Ackron emerged with an outstanding performance in the 100-yard butterfly which he won with a 59 seconds even performance.

The only other Belleville swimmer to reach the winner's dais was Curt Cullin, who was clocked in 4:16.5 for the 400-yard freestyle event.

Sports meridian

Needed: some prep cage data

By TOM MOORADIAN
Daily Eagle Sports Editor

One of my cohorts in Cadillac, Michigan dropped us a note asking for some information which he hopes to compile into a unique book. But, since my tenure in these parts only stretches back some seven years, I will also need some help from our fans and basketball coaches to obtain needed data.

Bob Tobia, editor of the Tribune-Record, says: "I am attempting to compile a list of the most prolific high school basketball scorers in the state's history and I am interested in any information or clippings you may have on this subject. It is my understanding that such a compilation of high school basketball has never been done for the whole state."

"Specifically, I am seeking information on any high school basketball player in your area who has scored 1,000 or more points in his varsity career, the highest single game scoring record for an individual and team on record in your area, and when these events occurred."

"If possible, I would also like a picture of those players whose information you forward," writes Tobia.

The Michigan High School Athletic Association is also contacting all member schools and asking them for similar information, and this work is being done in conjunction with the efforts of State Senator John Toepp (R-36th Dist.). Toepp is an ardent prep and MHSAA fan who broadcasts games in the Cadillac area and, who also owns a chain of radio stations in the middle of this state.

If you have any questions, contact me or Bob Tobia, Tribune-Record 419 Lake Street, Cadillac, Mich., 49601.

During the past seven years I do recall a few players who made it into the elite 1,000 plus scoring club among whom are Rick Drewitz, Garden City West High; Eartha Faust, Inkster High; Jim Alverson, Dearborn Heights Robichaud; Rick Wasilewski, New Boston Huron.

I'm not sure if Jim Kroll, Cherry Hill High, or Mike Masiacz, Garden City East High made the grade - if they didn't they were very close to it.

So coach, if you'll open up the ledger and accumulate the facts, we will gladly send the information on to Tobia or, if you wish, you may contact him yourself.

That little old "tie-breaker" Garo Yepremian sure looked good Saturday, didn't he?

Garo, the Lion castoff who emigrated to Miami to play for the Falcons, after being booted off the Detroit club, kicked the field goal in the Falcons' 27-24 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs to give Miami a crack at the American Football Conference title and the Super Bowl.

That's all stale news, of course.

But what I can't understand is, how come our castoffs usually end up as heroes when playing for other teams? So you also want to know who the top scorers are this year, huh?

That's not a difficult question to answer. The scoring race is being dominated by Garden City East's 6-4 senior center Dave Jackson and, surprisingly, sophomore center, John Long, of Romulus.

Both have scored at a better than 26 points per game clip. However, Long, who was sidelined last week because of a knee injury, has played in three games to Jackson's five.

Jackson, a shoo-in last year for All-Area cage honors, has compiled a total of 131 points in five games for a 26.2 ppg. average. Long, a brother of Nate Davis, a Romulus star last year, has poured in 78 points for a 26.3 ppg. average.

Jackson and Long have led their respective teams to undefeated seasons.

Two others are also over the 20 ppg. average this season. They're 6-7 center Tim Dietz, of Livonia Franklin, and Calvin Harris, the swift-moving junior from Romulus.

Dietz has carried his team to a respectable 3-2 over-all record, scoring 112 points for the season for a 22.2 average, while Harris has a total of 86 points in his four appearances this year in a Romulus jersey for a 21.5 average.

The way not to start a New Year:

1. In bed with a cold;
2. Watching Michigan and Stanford play in a Rose Bowl;
3. Reading a daily newspaper. — Police reporter Kevin Foley tells me this is the worst week he has had since inheriting the beat; a tremendous amount of killings!

In fact, I told him the first thing I did Jan. 1 was to glance at the obituary column. When I saw that my name wasn't listed, I knew it was all right to get up.

Oh, well, let's get back to local sports.

Jerry Pawloski, the kind-hearted coach from Cherry Hill High who has been accumulating the area high school swimming and diving listing for us says it's about time that Cherry Hill hosted a Western Wayne Swim & Dive Meet.

Last year's meet, if you recall, was staged at Belleville.

"I would like to throw our hat into the ring," said Pawloski. "We have as good if not better facility than most of the area high schools and I sincerely feel that we should be given a chance to stage this meet."

I can't see any reason why Cherry Hill shouldn't be the site for this year's meet, do you?

And since we started the New Year on the sad note, let's brighten the way a bit with this one:

"Dave Green, Ohio University's kick specialist, had three field goal attempts and one point after try blocked by Tulane in their recent encounter and he went dejectedly to the sidelines to confront Coach Bill Hess.

"Dammit, Coach," said Green, "I'm afraid they're going to block my kickoffs next."

Prep swim listing

Belleville-the defending Western Wayne Swimming and Diving champ, and undefeated in dual meet competition this season has taken command of the inaugural listings in the area.

Coach Sam Vicchy's Tigers look down on the rest of the area from eight of the 10 events. They also are on top of the listings in both relays - the 200-yard medley, and the 400 yard freestyle relays.

The listing, compiled by Cherry Hill Coach Jerry Pawloski, will appear each week in The Daily Eagle and the Associated Newspapers. Coaches are urged to contact Coach Pawloski at 941-4399 or at the high school at PA2-5900.

MHSAA announces tournament sites

The Michigan High School Athletic Association has released the listing of entertaining schools and the participants for the 1972 district and regional wrestling tournaments.

The 16 district, and 12 regional tournaments will be conducted under the auspices of the MSHAA with district tournaments to be held on Feb. 19 and regional tournaments held on Feb. 26 for classes A and B and Feb. 25 and 26 for classes C and D.

The Upper Peninsula final wrestling tournament will be held on Feb. 25 and 26 at Northern Michigan University at Marquette. All Lower Peninsula final wrestling tournaments will be held on March 3 and 4 with Class A meeting at Grand Rapids Calvin College, Class B at Alma High School, Alma and Class C and D at Lansing Waverly High School.

Determination of location and assignments of classes and teams to each tournament were made by the Wrestling Tournament Assignment Committee. Announcement of centers was made by Allen W. Bush, State Director of Athletics, Michigan High School Athletic Association.

Local schools, and the place at which each school will compete are as follows:

Belleville and Romulus will compete in the district tournament to be hosted by Temperance-Bedford High School, Joseph Kennelly, director of athletics. The winners of that tournament will then move to Walled Lake Western High School for regional competition.

Wildlife endangered

Sportsmen fight dam

Area sportsmen and hunters are up in arms about a dam, they say, would drain the wildlife and fishes from the Monroe Creek in Charlevoix County. The action to construct the dam has been temporarily stopped by a Circuit Court injunction.

"The pleas to preserve the Monroe Creek trout fishery and Cedar swamp deer yards which is a natural trout fishery and wildlife habitat, will be destroyed forever if the environmentalists, plus sportsman's clubs, will allow the Monroe Creek to be dammed in order to create a 450 acre artificial lake near East Jordan. Both area residents, and government officials, have joined the conservationists groups to have the Natural Resources Commission turn down the dam construction permit. The Natural Resources Commission approved it, because Director Ralph MacMullan recommended their approval of the proposal," said George Kadar, a spokesman for the sportsmen.

"Under the Charlevoix County's sanitary code, and South Arm Township's green belt zoning ordinance, the developer cannot alter or change the natural character of the creek of valley. The ordinances were enacted originally to preserve the natural environment of the fisheries and wildlife habitat of Monroe Creek and the valley it flows through," he pointed out.

Preps resume action

The 1971 season was a perfect one for Romulus' head coach Dave Court.

It was also a fruitful one for Belleville High's Allan Gates. However, the year produced no victories for New Boston Huron's Andy Herman.

Now for 1972.

The three coaches and their teams will see what the high school scene after a "time out" for the Christmas Holidays.

Romulus, undefeated in four starts, launched 1972 last night at home in Lincoln Park and will host an ailing Northville quintet on Friday, while Belleville will take a 3-2 overall record and a 1-1 league record up against Dearborn Edsel Ford Friday night.

Huron saw action last night at Airport and will return home Friday to greet Monroe Catholic Central. The Chiefs were unable to get their first year coach a victory in their first five outings.

Gates' Tigers have a two-game winning streak which they earned at the fourth annual Wayne Westland Holiday Tournament. Belleville put together victories over Wayne (81-66) and Glenn (81-87) to win the title at Glenn and the Belleville coach is hoping that the momentum will carry over to the second half of the season.

Though Edsel has shown little outside the league — they were slaughtered by Highland Park and Rouge at the Rouge holiday tournament, Coach Skip Domke's Tigers did manage to beat defending Suburban 6 Conference champ, Livonia Bentley, earlier in the season.

And Belleville's lone league setback came from the hands of the Livonians, 67-63.

The Tigers have been getting a superlative performance from Mike Garland, who is averaging nearly 25 points per game. Also providing the Tigers with a balanced attack are Al Cicotte, Ed Branam, Terry Pate, Marty Miller and Keith Neeley.

Calvin Harris, Ron Kerwer, Tony Owens and Ken McMann are regulars who have thus far carried the team.

Height, the lack of it, has caused Herman most of his headaches. The Chief mentor is losing the boards to his rivals and other mistakes have contributed to the Chiefs' demise.

Ten days to get out the kinks may have helped Huron solve some of its problems — but with teams as Flat Rock, Grosse Ile ahead, it looks like a long year for the New Boston cagers and their coach.

Wayne State University's 1918 (4-0-0) and 1921 (6-0-2) football teams were both unscored upon.

A Belleville loss to Edsel — (and, after that Stanford victory over Michigan anything can happen, can't it?) would put the Tigers in a precarious position.

Romulus has come up with a couple of late rallies to preserve its streak and Coach Court should have little trouble with Northville, a team that occupies the cellar in the Western Six Conference.

However, the Eagles' top scorer, John Long is suffering from a leg injury and missed one of the games. The stretch may depend on Long's play on both ends of the court and if he's sidelined Romulus could be in trouble.

In federal crime control funds

County gets $4 million

Detroit and Wayne County are in line for a total of $4,162,699 in federal omnibus crime control funds under the latest approvals by the Michigan Commission on Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice.

Fourteen separate grants for agencies within Wayne County were approved at the December meeting of the state commission.

Wayne County agencies will receive seven grants totaling $2,479,659 and Detroit agencies will get three grants amounting to $1,481,500.

In addition, Highland Park will receive $100,900 through three grants and Livonia is in line for one grant of $100,640.

The largest grants were $750,000 for construction of a reception and medical diagnostic center at the Wayne County Jail, $1.2 million for a heroin addicts rehabilitation program and $1,280,200 for a Detroit police emergency communications system.

The heroin addicts program will be operated by the Detroit-Wayne County Community Mental Health Services Board. The board also got $132,109 to finance the drug addicts recovery program of Project SHAR.

Other grants to Wayne County agencies were: $174,750 to the Prosecutor's Office for emergency prosecutors; $125,300 to Wayne County Intermediate School District for drug abuse education; $60,000 for continuation of Recorder's Court pre-trial release program; and $37,500 to the University of Detroit Law Clinic.

Detroit grants included a $188,700 grant for minority police recruitment and a $12,600 outlay for a police department legal adviser intern program.

The Livonia police received $100,640 to develop a community service officers program.

The Highland Park police were granted $25,000 for a crime prevention unit and $28,200 for in-service training. In addition, Highland Park will cooperate with Wayne State University in a teacher-student criminal justice education program under a $47,700 grant.

The $4.2 million worth of grants to agencies in Wayne County was the largest amount of omnibus crime funds ever awarded at one time in Michigan. It brings the total awarded for programs in the county to $13,089,091 since the start of the Federal Omnibus Crime Control program in 1968.

"Agencies in Wayne County have received 45 per cent of the funds granted since the start of the program in Michigan," noted County Commissioner Eugene A. Sikora of Detroit, executive chairman of the Detroit-Wayne County Criminal Justice Coordinating Council.

"This shows a gratifying recognition at the state and federal levels of the immense problems faced by the urban areas in law enforcement, criminal justice and drug abuse," he said.

Sikora noted that Detroit and Wayne County, with 30 per cent of the state's population, account for 45 per cent of the serious crime committed in Michigan.

In one of the state budget bills, the Michigan Legislature inserted a provision that the Department of State collect a $2 penalty fee for all driver license renewals that are applied for more than 90 days after their expiration date, Austin said.

"The new provision went into effect October 15, and already the state has collected several thousands of dollars from the $2 penalty fee," he said.

"As an example," Austin said, "we conducted a brief survey covering just six days in October. From October 19 to 27, some 1,582 persons applied for a new driver license more than 90 days late."

Jaycees visit kids

The Belleville-Van Buren Jaycees sponsored a Christmas program involving youngsters who are patients in the Belvil Community and Beyer Memorial hospitals during Christmas New Year's week.

The Jaycees had Santa Claus visit the patients to deliver both holiday spirit and presents.

The children reported they enjoyed the visit by Santa and the gifts.

Mahalak (D-Romulus) (right) presents Sumpter Township Fire Chief Joseph Mitchell with an American flag which had flown over the Capitol Building in Washington, D.C. The presentation was made during a get-together held over the Christmas holidays. The youngsters in the foreground are anxiously awaiting the arrival of Santa Claus, who came to town minutes later.

Welfare mothers told to work, get training

President Nixon has signed into law a bill initiated by congressional conservatives which requires many healthy welfare mothers to work or accept job training.

Critics of the measure say Nixon's signature kills any chances for enactment of the other key parts of the President's welfare reform plan: a guaranteed annual income and welfare benefits for low-income job holders.

The bill Nixon signed at the Florida White House Tuesday during the congressional recess goes into effect July 1. It makes it mandatory for many of the 2.6 million parents in the controversial aid to families with dependent children program to sign up for available jobs or training. Only the aged, the sick or disabled, those in school or mothers of children under school age are exempted.

The measure, attached as an amendment to a larger bill, was quietly passed by the House and Senate Dec. 15 with little debate or advance notice.

Welfare administrators say the problem is not finding welfare recipients to sign up for jobs, but finding any jobs at all for those who will or are able to work.

In signing the bill, Nixon acknowledged it amounts to something less than half a loaf.

The welfare system, he said, "is yet in need of reform."

Cub Pack 1071 has Yule party

Cub Scout Pack 1071, sponsored by the First United Methodist Church, had its annual Christmas party and pot luck supper on Dec. 20 in the church fellowship hall.

In charge of the menus and decorations were Mrs. Judy Fruit, Mrs. Jan MacDermid and Mrs. Jan Frederick. The hall was gaily decorated with a tree, balloons and streamers in Christmas colors.

Guests invited to the party were Rev. and Mrs. Charles Dibley and daughter, Ruth Ann; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shephard, institutional representative, and son Brian; Mr. and Mrs. George Haft, district commissioner; Ralph Bird, community commissioner, and Mr. and Mrs. James Pollard and family. Pollard is committee chairman.

Belleville High School's

singing group, "The Sunsets," sang a medley of Christmas carols during dinner. More entertainment was provided by magician Roy Kissell. Several boys and girls were asked by Kissell to help with some of his fascinating tricks, and later he presented each boy and girl with a magic trick as a gift.

Cubmaster Richard Trevorrow announced a roller skating party for Jan. 17, the Rocket Race which will take place on Jan. 31 (regular pack meeting) and the coming of the pot luck dinner at Cobo Hall on Feb. 5 for adults only. All the children then lined up to take a turn at breaking the pinata and all came up with a hand full of goodies. Santa then came and presented each child with a gift and listened to each one's wishes.

IRS will figure out return

Tax returns easier to fill out

Filling out a tax return may be easier than many American taxpayers think, the Internal Revenue Service said recently in unveiling tax return form 1040 and instructions for 1971.

1,000 see production at church

The Christmas production entitled "Heaven Came Down" presented at the Grace Baptist Church of 164 Roys St., Belleville, was viewed by more than 1,000 persons in its two presentations Dec. 19 and Dec. 26.

The production makes use of colored lighting effects, costumes and stereo music. It begins with a beautiful candlelight procession and highlights the life of Christ, portraying of Him actually carrying his cross and closing with the appeal for every true Christian to pick up his cross and follow him.

The production was scheduled for Dec. 19. An audience of approximately 700 persons prompted the church to schedule a repeat presentation on Dec. 26.

Paul R. Daoust to get degree

Among the area students slated to receive their diplomas this winter at University of Michigan is Paul Richard Daoust, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Daoust of 8560 Warrham Rd. Romulus. Paul attending the graduate school of business administration, is to receive a Master of Actuary Science degree.

While few changes could be made in the form 1040, this year a special effort was directed toward improving the instruction booklet that comes with the form.

For example, in the 1971 booklet, instructions that deal with significant, specialized filing information are highlighted in outline boxes. A sample filled-in-form included in the instruction booklet accompanying the tax form shows how the taxpayer can prepare his own return, if (1) the taxpayer's income is under $10,000, (2) it is made up of only wages and not more than $100 in dividends or interest, and (3) the standards deduction is used.

The IRS pointed out that up to 30 million taxpayers may choose to take the standard deduction, which is 13 per cent of adjusted gross income for 1971, with a maximum of $1,500. This is up from 10 per cent and $1,000 for the preceding year.

Many taxpayers may again have the IRS figure their income tax and retirement income credit. On request, the IRS will figure the tax for persons with incomes of $20,000 or less, who take the standard deduction and whose income is solely from salaries and wages, dividends, interest, pensions and annuities.

The IRS, on request, will also compute the taxpayer's retirement income credit if he provides certain information. Instructions on schedule R of form 1040 explain which items must be provided.

After the IRS figures the tax on a return, either a refund check or a bill for the tax due will be mailed to the taxpayer. If bills for the tax due are paid within 30 days, taxpayers will not be subject to interest or penalty charges, the IRS said.

The 1040 packages again have the peel-off label on the front cover of the material taxpayers receive in the mail. The label carries the taxpayer's name, address and the social security number.

Taxpayers should remove the label from the front of the package and place it in the name-and-address block of the 1040 they file, the IRS said. This eliminates the need to fill in the name, address, and social security number blocks on the return and reduces the likelihood of delays in processing the return and risk of error in crediting the taxpayer.

If there are any errors in the information on the label, the taxpayers should make corrections on the label itself, the IRS said. The tax packages again include schedules generally based on needs indicated by the taxpayer's past filing history, the IRS said. However, if taxpayers need additional schedules, they can get them at the nearest IRS office.

Most taxpayers who filed returns for 1970 will receive their 1971 tax packages in the mail early in January.

Bureau to sample area

A sample of households in this area will be asked about their buying and home improvement expectations when visited by a Bureau of the Census interviewer during the period Jan. 3-15, Robert G. McWilliam, director of the bureau's Data Collection Detroit, announced.

The survey is made four times yearly as a part of a nationwide effort to guide governmental agencies in developing programs based on consumer purchasing patterns.

Households in the survey will be asked if they expect to buy a house, car or major household appliances during the next year, and if they have made recent purchases of these items.

Homeowners will be asked about home improvements and repairs made during the last three months and any planned for the future.

Sauerbraten Meat Balls

...delicious and easy on the food budget

When planning main dishes, which can take a big chunk from your food budget, you would do well to take a tip from the thrifty Germans. They are known for hearty fare than can be prepared on a shoestring.

One idea that is not only economical, but particularly tantalizing for any appetite, is Sauerbraten Meat Balls. It's a ground beef combination which includes a tangy sauce just like that of the famous German sauerbraten.

The sauce is flavored with bouillon, gingersnap crumbs, raisins, brown sugar, and lemon juice to add the tangy taste. The recipe calls for bottled lemon juice, an especially convenient and economical way to make use of this fruit.

Serve the Sauerbraten Meat Balls over noodles. Sprinkling the noodles with poppyseeds adds another touch of authenticity.

Closet easily converted to office or hobby room

An unobtrusive home office or a hideaway hobby room can be added easily by converting a large family room closet and enclosing it with bi-fold louver wood doors.

To hold a music center, writing desk, games, toys and hobby supplies, the closet is filled with shelves of western pine in varied widths.

The desk can be built onto the wall, with room for a chair to tuck under, and built-in shelves above.

The folding doors quickly hide spread-out work, if unexpected guests arrive.

Light-toned paneling, such as western hemlock, on the back wall helps brighten the room.

All Around The Town

...with Lee

THE KREIES—Bob, Betty, Jimmy, and Joyce have been back in Belleville the past two weeks to visit with relatives and friends who entertained them practically every night of their visit (to the point that Bob had to keep a little date book handy.) The Kreies, who moved to Ogunquit, Maine nearly a year ago to go into business, are the houseguests of Bob's mother, Mrs. Myrtle Kreie of Liberty Street.

Christmas Eve was spent with Bob's family at Dick and Joyce Maton's Ypsilanti home with Christmas Day at another of Bob's sisters and brother-in-law's, Joanne and Bill Osborne of Savage Road. Other out-of-staters in for the occasion were Harold and Betsy (Kreie) Akers and son, Mike, from Danville, Indiana. On New Year's Day the family was together again at the Osborne home.

The round of parties tossed for the Eastern visitors included a dessert and bridge evening at Jim and Carol Fitch's Second Street home. Making up the guest list were Bill and Donna Loyd and Dick and Joyce Maton from Ypsilanti; Klair and Pat Kissel of Plymouth; Dave and Shirley Hammond, John and Pat Touse, and Tom and Jean Troxell, all from Belleville.

Prizes for high scores went to Bob Kreie and Shirley Hammond with Klair Kissel and Donna Loyd settling for low.

Also during the week the Kreies were entertained at a movie and pizza afterwards with Cliff and Kathy St. Cyr (Bob's brother-in-law and sister) playing host; a dinner outing planned by the Dave Hammonds; with tonight's party at Dr. and Mrs. Jerry Kelly's Beck Road home including a number of close friends.

Last Tuesday Betty got together 'with the girls' at the bridge luncheon given by Pat Kissel in Plymouth. Making up the four tables were Marge Ford, Louise Powers, Donna Loyd, Joyce Maton, Shirley Hammond, Carol Fitch, Pat Touse, Wilma Tator, Jean Troxell, and Shar Tator.

The Kreie foursome plan to leave for England this Saturday.

A CHANGE FROM TURKEY — A delightful dinner after the holiday's traditional turkey menu is Fisk Dillso's or Shrimp Scandinavian — a Swedish-inspired entree than can be prepared in less than a half hour. Frozen green peas with cream sauce eliminates tricky white sauce preparation that's traditionally a part of Sweden's Dillso's. Surround this impressive dish with a fresh fruit salad and a candlelight setting and you've set the mood for a lovely evening. (Courtesy Birds Eye Green Peas with Cream Sauce.)

Supper from Sweden

--Shrimp Scandinavian

Fisk Dillso's
(Shrimp Scandinavian)

$\frac{3}{4}$ pound frozen shrimp, thawed
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1 package (8 oz.) frozen green peas
with cream sauce
2-3 cup water
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup mayonnaise
1 tablespoon lemon juice
 $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon dill weed
1 egg white

*Or use 1 pound fresh shrimp, cleaned.

Reserve 3 shrimp for garnish, if desired. Split remaining shrimp. Sauté all of the shrimp in butter in skillet until shrimp are pink — about 5 to 8 minutes. Set shrimp for garnish aside. Add peas with cream sauce and water to shrimp in skillet. Cover and continue cooking until mixture comes to a full boil — about 5 minutes longer. Remove from heat; stir until smooth. Pour mixture into 1-quart casserole. Combine mayonnaise, lemon juice, and dill weed. Beat egg white until stiff peaks form; fold in mayonnaise mixture. Spread evenly over shrimp and peas. Place under broiler and broil until lightly browned — about 1 to 2 minutes. Garnish with reserved shrimp. Makes 3 servings.

Note: Recipe may be doubled using a 2-quart casserole.

Cues from career women

Don't pity the poor career girl. She's likely to have things a lot easier than her counterpart at home! The key to her success? Organization — imposed from above in the well-run office; too often at a premium when the woman of the house has to do everything herself.

Even if you're the housebound and love it, it pays to borrow the tricks of efficiency-oriented working women. Having less time for homework, they're forced to make every minute count. Suggestions from these clever career women, compiled by Company, can help uncompliment the business of running a home.

Take that office staple, the filing cabinet. If your bills and memos always go astray, buy a small file cabinet and assign drawer space for tax records, stationery and supplies, photos and documents. The secretary keeps track of her pencils by placing them in a cup on her desk. Adapt this idea by storing small kitchen gadgetry (can opener, paring knife, corkscrew) in a large mug on your work counter.

Even the simplest aids from an office supply store do double duty at home. For example, Scotch Magic transparent tape can be used to cover your favorite recipes so they won't get greasy. One smart secretary tapes over addresses whenever she has to walk to the mailbox in the rain; it assures that a letter bound for Indiana won't reach Montana!

Planning a trip? The career girl packs light; so should your family. Include Scotch double-coated tape among your essentials; it secures travelers checks to your purse lining, and anchors a sagging hem or holds a belt in place. (Who wants to mend on vacation?)

Is running a household easier than going to work? Of course not! Both present unique challenges, but both require organization. And that's why office technology is so useful in the home.

A lovelier you

Girls, watch your step!

By Mary Sue Miller

When somebody steps on your toes, which hurts most—your dignity? Ten to one it's your dignity that suffers. You know in your heart, if your foot had not been in an awkward, vulnerable position, it would have escaped harm.

Granted, keeping the feet out of harm's way may not be as easy as once was. The female foot is a great deal bigger than in Grandma's day and the world is a lot more crowded.

But surely there would be fewer embarrassing mishaps if the feet were more discreetly managed, not stuck out in the aisle of a bus, not sprawled under a dining table, not spread across the movie line. But that's elementary.

Let's get on the finer points, like turning around to talk with the handsome male who is standing directly behind you. How do you maneuver then? Whirl like a dervish or teeter like a toddler? Either way there will be some scuffed toes. Not to mention ruffled poise!

It is so much simpler to give a smooth performance. Just center your weight on the ball of your right foot. Take a fractional step forward with your left foot. Lift both heels a bit and pivot on the toes until in an aboutface.

After a bit of practice your motions take on a graceful flow. Your footwork becomes so deft, that handsome male starts to think he's the agile one. And therein lies a secret of charm, my lovely.

Amy Vanderbilt's etiquette

Something different for special people

By AMY VANDERBILT

"Dear Miss Vanderbilt: A friend in a rest home likes raw vegetables, so I took her a box of onions, small fresh cucumbers and sweet peppers. I also took a bunch of mixed flowers and a package of mints to share with her roommate and callers. — Mrs. M.T."

Homemade cookies packed in tins, cakes of castile soap (gentle on sensitive skin), small bottles of (Yardley's) English Lavender Cologne or packets of the sachet, are all good ideas, too.

Sometimes a ripe avocado given to a friend in a rest home or hospital tastes delicious. Just cut in half, season with lime juice (you could take a plastic lime) and eat with a spoon. Few hospital menus can afford such luxury.

These ideas are very helpful to my readers. Post cards, please.

"Dear Miss Vanderbilt: What language should I speak to our children? I married an American but I was born and raised in Canada's French province of Quebec and spoke nothing but French until I married and moved here. Today I speak with hardly an accent. When my first child was born I was afraid I might confuse the child since her father only speaks English, but my doctor assured me that studies had been made and the child will know to speak French to me and English to others. He said this was the best setup I could have. I happily did this and spoke only French to our three children. They reacted just as the doctor said they would.

"My family and friends in Canada are very pleased that they can communicate with them. But here is my problem. My mother-in-law and a few acquaintances do not approve, so I avoid speaking to the children in their presence. They seem to resent the fact that they can't understand what I am saying to the children. I can't see why it is important for them to do so. What I have to say to young children is not so interesting to others. Also, they can't see the good of the children's learning French. My husband has always approved, but lately he has said that perhaps I should use English in the presence of others, that to do otherwise is poor etiquette. I know it is among adults, but I thought with young children it would be different.

"Most people admire what we do and enjoy hearing us. When they are older and can be part of our conversation, what then? I guess we'll have to use English.

"You've heard me out, so now it is your turn to tell us what is proper etiquette. — Mrs. Y.T."

I have had many friends who have had this problem. In front of people who do not speak the language the mother speaks with the children, it seems best for her to speak English. This seems to be the problem with your mother-in-law who possibly feels left out. The children quickly adapt to the use of two languages from the mother and they learn that when they are with people who don't understand the second language, it is polite to speak in the first.

I heartily agree with you that you are doing a very valuable thing for the children in making them bilingual. A child who receives a second language at home has an enormous advantage to one who must learn it only in school.

"Dear Miss Vanderbilt: Smoking manners might improve if readers could be convinced that air pollution triggers problems for some people. The smoker who leaves stubs smoldering or who blows smoke toward another restaurant table may envelop a neighbor who has such sensitive tissues that he will spend the next week coughing, wheezing, with eyes watering and suffering headaches. I moved to a pollution-free area to keep generally healthy except when I encounter a smoker who can't be outmaneuvered. — Mrs. E.S.

And this.

"Dear Miss Vanderbilt: Put me down as objecting to smoking in restaurants especially at food counters. I agree a special section should be reserved for nonsmokers. Smoking women generally have atrocious manners. — Mrs. M. St. Paul, Minn.

"Dear Miss Vanderbilt: Thank you for your stand on smoking. I agree with you that smokers as a group are not mannerly by any stretch of the imagination. I find almost nonexistent a smoker who refrains from smoking when it is obvious someone close by dislikes it. In fact, I seldom see anyone who smokes clean or empty an ashtray that is full. My patience with rude and inconsiderate manners (of blowing smoke directly my way and leaving an unpleasant mess of ashes and butts in sight) is becoming very thin. Let's have more smokers' quarters located away from eating and public lounging areas — J.H., St."

It is true that smokers usually don't seem to realize that there are people present who don't enjoy their smoking. If you do object, you should speak up — politely. Sometimes-but not always-it does some good.

We ask that you also bring or send in pictures to accompany either story. There is no charge for this service.

Improve appearance of your back door

Back doors, often bearing the family's major traffic, seldom receive any thought for improving convenience or eye appeal.

Aback entry or mud room greatly adds to usefulness of this area. If entry is directly into a room, a closet for coats, umbrellas and overshoes, plus a chair and a shelf for packages or school books can be installed.

The area around a back door can be enhanced with a deck of western wood, easily swept or hosed off during muddy months. Combine storage with the deck, for outdoor tools and supplies, or to enclose garbage cans.

This is a natural and often-used outdoor living area, usually convenient to the kitchen for serving alfresco meals or refreshments. Build sturdy wood benches along rails for use with tables.

For homes with driveways or walks that let visitors stray to the back door, a screen or low fence of western wood usually can redirect them, but if this isn't possible, dressing up the back entry is the answer.

Do you have any questions on funeral customs and procedures? Come in or write to me for an answer.

Q. My husband is a sentimentalist, likely to cry when he sees others cry. Consequently, he avoids funerals, even for close friends, whenever possible. Can such sentiments be overcome?

A. Crying for many people is a "contagious behavior" — the same as yawning or giggling in a crowd. We cannot explain why. But, there is nothing shameful in sentiment — crying included. A good cry can be helpful. Avoiding a good cry can actually be harmful. Any psychologist will tell your husband the same thing.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

Wade and Trim & Associates, Romulus's consulting engineering firm has been instructed to prepare construction plans for the paving of Washington Street from Ronald Street south to existing pavement in the Wyndcliff Subdivision.

The firm received the go-ahead signal at a recent public hearing held before Romulus City Council.

Independent students can get aid

Policy regarding state scholarships for independent students was released today from the office of State Sen. William Faust (D-Westland) from information he requested from the Michigan Department of Education.

"I have had numerous inquiries from area residents seeking information about the state's policy regarding these scholarships," said Faust, "and I'm sure that this information will help other persons wishing to know about the availability of state sponsored independent financial aid."

Faust said that for purposes of clarity, an independent student is one that is strictly on his own — not living with his parents and earning his own keep.

An applicant to receive independent student consideration according to the state policy must have been independent for at least one year.

The Michigan Higher Education Assistance Authority lists the following three criteria used to determine independent student status:

1. The student has not resided with his parents or legal guardians at any time since July 1 — which is one year prior to fall college enrollment for a given academic year.
2. The parents or legal guardians have not provided more than $500 support since July 1 — again, one year prior to fall college enrollment for a given academic year.
3. The student has not been claimed by his parents or legal guardian on the previous year's income tax statement.

If the student meets the three above criteria, he may submit his own financial information and be considered on the basis of his financial resources. However, all of the independent student's income and assets will be considered for college expenses. A statement must be signed by the parents indicating that the student qualifies according to the three criteria.

The requirements also apply to married applicants. However, the income and assets of both applicant and spouse will be considered for college expenses on the basis of a married student college cost.

Faust pointed out that persons interested in finding out if they are eligible for financial assistance should check with the local financial aid office at the university or college they attend or plan to attend. High school students can obtain the information from their school counselors.

FRANK E. OSBORN

Osborn appointed to airport position

Frank E. Osborn of 37570 Knollway Dr., Wayne, has been named manager of fixed base operations at Detroit Metropolitan Airport, Romulus.

The announcement was made by Douglas W. Juston, executive vice president of Page Airways, Inc. The New York-based company was recently awarded a long-term contract to provide general aviation services for business aircraft and air carriers, including scheduled and non-scheduled airlines serving the Detroit area.

As manager of fixed base operations, Osborn will be responsible for fueling, ramp, maintenance and other aircraft support services, including cargo handling.

Osborn joined Page after operating his own management consulting company for two years. Previously he served as vice president of business development, planning and sales for Butler Aviation and president and chairman of the board of Aircraft and Airport Services Inc.

His business career began with Capital Airlines in 1946 after his discharge from the U.S. Navy. He is a member of the American Association of Airport Executives.

He and his wife Dorothy have two married sons.

Students give food, clothing

A total of six large baskets filled with canned goods, new clothing and toys were donated to needy families in Romulus by students at Beverly Elementary School, it was learned Monday.

The students distributed the baskets during the Christmas-New Year's holiday season.

Collection of the canned goods, clothing and toys, was made prior to Christmas and was a student-sponsored project.

Fire truck purchased

A contract for the purchase of a new fire truck for the City of Romulus has been awarded to the American LaFrance Co. of Elvira, N.Y.

The firm submitted a bid of $38,841 as the purchase price for the new fire truck.

The bid was the lowest of three received by the city. Council approved the American LaFrance bid on the recommendation by Fire Chief Joseph Crova.

The council instructed City Clerk Leonard J. Folmar to prepare specifications for a radio for the new truck and to advertise for bids immediately.

The fire department operates four fire stations and presently has six pieces of fire fighting equipment — foam truck, fire van and four pumps.

Rotary holds party for kids

The annual Christmas party sponsored by the Belleville Rotary Club attracted approximately 100 children.

The party was held at the Fellowship Hall of the First United Methodist Church of Belleville.

The children were entertained by "Elmo the Clown" and visited by Santa Claus, who gave each child a Christmas gift.

'Operation ID' begins in Sumpter

The program, called "Operation ID," was devised by the township's new police chief, David W. McNealy.

The program involves the engraving of identification marks on household goods such as electrical appliances, furniture and other valuables to enable police to return these items back to their rightful owner in the event they are stolen.

Beginning next Monday residents will be able to rent an electrical engraving tool from the township's police department for a small deposit of $3 for a 24-hour period.

In the confines of their own homes they can engrave any identification mark they choose. Police suggested social security numbers or drivers license numbers.

The $3 deposit will be refunded when the tool is returned to the police department.

Chief McNealy pointed out that in many areas, police department have recovered stolen property and have been unable to return the property to the owners because of lack of identification.

In most areas the recovered stolen items are auctioned off and the proceeds kept by the community.

Assessment tests slated to be given

The assessment tests for the third year of the Michigan Assessment Program have arrived at the Van Buren School District's Board of Education offices.

Curriculum and Instruction Director Raymond Kohr reported Monday that the assessment tests will be given to members of the fourth and seventh grades. The tests are under the supervision of the Michigan Department of Education.

The controversial phase of the tests, which were employed in the first and second years of the assessment test program, have been eliminated this year, Kohr disclosed.

This phase related to the social and economic condition of the student.

The test this year involves the attitude of the student toward school and the basic skills of reading, English and arithmetic.

The tests will be given to the students during a three-week period beginning this week.

Scout program planned

A one-day Cub Scout training program will be conducted Saturday, Jan. 15, by the Huron Boy Scout District.

The program will be held at Trinity Episcopal Church, 11575 Belleville Rd., Belleville, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The cost is $1.50, which can be paid at the door. Those attending can either bring a lunch or go out to eat during the lunch hour.

Anyone interested in serving cub scouting from any district is invited to attend.

The Huron District serves part of Wayne and all of Taylor, Romulus, Sumpter Township, New Boston and Belleville.

Former librarian is speaker

Board okays signs

The Van Buren Township Board has approved the erection of yield right-of-way traffic signs at certain streets in the Van Buren Estates Subdivision.

The yield signs will be erected by the Wayne County Road Commission, which had approved the traffic regulations some time previously.

The streets affected are as follows:

City audit ordered in Romulus

An audit of all city automobiles and pick-up trucks indicating to which department they are assigned and how many are assigned to 24-hour duty has been ordered by Romulus City Council.

A request for the audit was made by Councilman James C. Stewart. He was supported by Councilman William M. Oakley. The vote of the council was unanimous.

The request for an audit follows council's action in cancelling an order for the purchase of two 1972 city cars from Ray Whitfield Sale, Inc. of Taylor and subsequent criticism by the administrative branch of city government.

The car order was cancelled on an alleged failure of the car dealer to meet the delivery date.

Jaycees
host party
for kids

The Romulus Jaycees hosted more than 40 area needy children at their annual Christmas party held this year at Merriman Elementary School.

The Jaycees purchased several gifts for each child in order to see that Christmas would be enjoyable for as many as possible.

"Red Dog" Hayes, a former Barnum and Bailey Circus Clown, interrupted his already full schedule in order to provide entertainment for the children.

According to the Jaycees, it was one of the more satisfying projects they have held this year.

City council

CARROLL RICHTER'S horoscope

Tomorrow's forecast from the Carroll Richter Institute

General tendencies: The daytime brings a good opportunity to find out from an influential man what he can do to help you get ahead. Health treatments can be excellent for you. The evening is no time to take any chances. Avoid speaking your mind or opposition develops.

Aries (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) You now have to use an unusual system to get those problems you have handled well. Show co-worker that you have real talent. Gain full cooperation. Relax tonight with mate.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) Once important work is done, plan recreations, and then carry through with flying colors. Make your life as ideal as you can through honest effort. Show more devotion to mate.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21) Stop worrying about the past at home. Concentrate on the future, which can be as fine as you can envision. Eliminate tensions and carry through in a positive fashion. Relax tonight.

Moon Children (June 22 to July 21) Study brochures, and magazines that will give you the data you need at this time. Cooperate with associates in deals that mean much to them. You can also benefit.

Leo (July 22 to Aug. 21) You have many fine new ideas you can start working on and thereby increase your abundance. Listen to what a clever business person has to suggest. Follow through. Be wise.

Virgo (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Show appreciation for associates you can trust, especially when you are having rough sledding. Attend a party later that will bring you pleasure and lift your spirit. Dress tastefully.

Libra (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Try to gain the goodwill of an adviser who can be most helpful to you right now and gain the support you need. Obtain the information you need and then go out to fun places with friends.

Scorpio (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) A good friend can give you the ideas you need right now for your social advancement. Apply yourself consistently to the tasks at hand and get right results. Avoid one who bickers.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) You can get a civic matter rolling along nicely now by thinking and acting intelligently. Try not to fly off the handle with anyone at home. Show that you are a good citizen.

Capricorn (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Plan some time to get to new places and confer with persons whose background is not similar to yours. A good day to plan a trip for the future—the cost well.

Aquarius (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) This is one day when you can easily make the collections and payments necessary for your well-being. Show true devotion to your mate and get right results. Show that you are loyal.

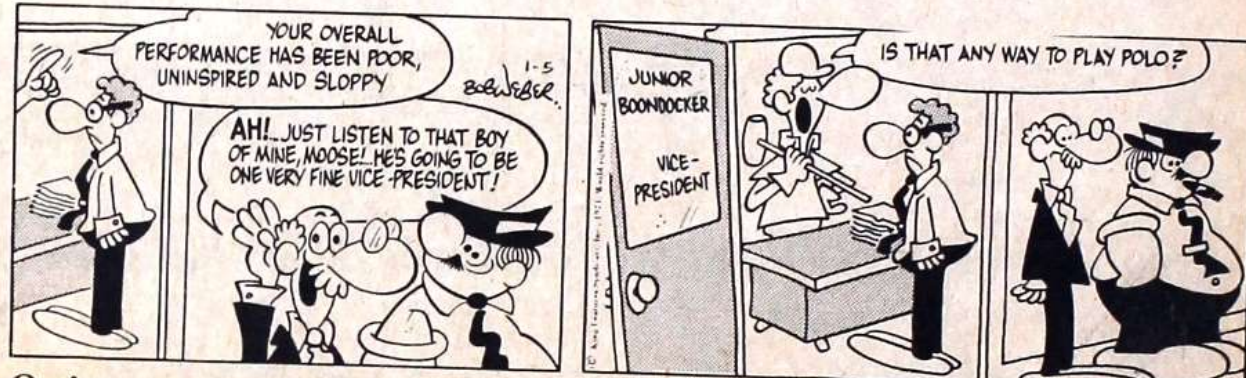

Pisces (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Long conversations with partners bring the right understanding now that you desire as well as the future harmony you want. Later, attend the social. Think constructively.

If your child is born today...he or she will be one of those delightful young people who understands duty and will wisely carry through with whatever tasks are assigned, provided you teach early to look into the motives behind the aims to be reached. Direct the education along lines of profession that require much attention to detail. Discipline here must be the gentle, intelligent kind. Teach to worship early.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to you!
